Conditions to be met for payment of a referral reward:

- The referral candidate must be a new contact. They cannot be on the waiting list or have previously initiated the application process.
- The referring resident must complete the resident referral form, and this referral must lead to a 12-month, minimum lease signed by the new tenant and their guarantor (where applicable).
- The $200 referral reward ($100 for the current resident, $100 for the new resident) will be applied toward both parties' rent 30 days after the new resident has moved in.
- In order for a current or future resident to receive the referral reward credit towards their rent, the referring resident's rental account must be in good standing (i.e., all rent, charges, utility overages, and other fees assessed to date must be paid).
