Miller-Valentine Group Recognized as AHF Top 50 Developer and Owner in 2014

Cincinnati, Ohio – Miller-Valentine Group is honored to announce that they have been recognized in the AHF (Affordable Housing Finance) Top 50 Developers & Owners for 2014. Miller-Valentine Group has been named 11th in the country in development of new units in 2014. The firm is also the 28th largest owner of affordable housing in the country.

Miller-Valentine Group's multifamily division continues to post strong affordable housing numbers in the AHF Top 50 year after year. They completed 6 developments (totaling 348 units) in 2014. All developments utilized housing tax credits, including an 83-unit historic rehabilitation. The company also completed construction on its first Oklahoma and Texas developments in 2014.

Brian McGeady, Partner & President of Miller-Valentine Affordable Housing Development says "Our key to success is that we have created a great team of developers who cover 14 states. They've been able to strategically identify markets and types of housing that we want to develop. Our expansion into the Southwest and Southeast have been critical components of the recent MV growth."

Miller-Valentine's multifamily division anticipates a busy 2015, expecting to start 15 developments (totaling more than 1,000 units), including 3 luxury market-rate communities to complement its affordable housing business.
