Miller-Valentine Delivers Additional Growth for the Uptown Kokomo Revitalization Plan

Kokomo, Indiana – Miller-Valentine Group is proud to be a contributor of and offer support towards local community goals within the Kokomo, Indiana area through the Uptown Kokomo Revitalization Plan. Washington Street Senior Residence, located at 400 North Washington Street is one of the chosen projects geared to help guide redevelopment opportunities in downtown Kokomo. This brand new community will serve adults 55 and over who desire quality affordable rental housing and is currently accepting applications. Additional community support for the development has also come from local service providers: Area 5 Agency on Aging, the Kokomo Senior Center, the Kokomo Housing Authority and the City of Kokomo. Mayor Greg Goodnight has also expressed strong support and listed Washington Street Senior Residence as the highest tax credit priority by giving the development five (5) points.

Washington Street Senior Residence is located within excellent walkable proximity to services and day-to-day shopping conveniences giving residents extra freedom and independence. Area 5 Agency on Aging will act as the service coordinator, planning programs and services that include: in-home meals, referral services, loaned medical equipment, transportation, and regularly scheduled activity programs, just to name a few. In addition, a resident association will be formed by an elected resident liaison.

Inside the modern, open, one and two bedroom floor plans, residents enjoy gourmet kitchens with ample pantries and breakfast bar, laundry rooms with full-size front loading pedestal washers/dryers, and oversized bathrooms with step-in showers. Washington Street Senior Residence enhances the quality of life of our residents with community amenities including: secure access entry, off-street parking with night time lighting, 24-hour state-of-the-art fitness center, lounges, media/theater room, community room with dining area, business center with computer access, and additional rental storage space if needed. Of course, pets are welcome in our community.
