The celebration will take place on Thursday, August 22, 2013 at 2001 Hampshire Terrace, Joplin, Missouri 64804. The Grand Opening will kick off with a pre-event reception at 1:30 pm, which will give attendees the opportunity to tour the beautiful community. The ceremony will begin at 2:30 pm onsite.

We are honored to have several distinguished speakers at this event, including: US Congressman, Billy Long; Missouri State Representatives, Charlie Davis and Bill White; Mayor of the City of Joplin, Melodee Colbert-Kean; Director of Developer Relations, RBC Capital Markets, Craig Wagner; CEO, Economic Security Corporation, John Joines; Chairman, Royal Heights United Methodist Church, Jim Oglesby and Underwriter, Missouri Housing Development Commission, Justin Dorsey. We will also hear from two residents who will share how living at Hampshire Landing Apartments has impacted their lives.

Miller-Valentine Group worked with Missouri Housing Development Commission and Mercy Housing Mountain Plains to bring this amazing project to fruition. Built on the site of Hampshire Terrace, a community destroyed by an EF5 multiple-vortex tornado in 2011, Hampshire Landing Apartments will provide residents with modern comfort, security, and a high quality of life. This brand new, pet friendly community features two- and three-bedroom apartment homes with an extensive list of amenities, including: storm shelters, fully-equipped gourmet kitchens with energy-efficient appliances, full-size washer/dryer connections, and central air conditioning. The family friendly community also features a clubhouse with a computer room and state-of-the-art fitness center, playground, outdoor picnic areas, 24-hour emergency maintenance services and a professional onsite management team.

Jim Fenwick, President of Miller-Valentine Residential Property Management, said “Miller-Valentine Group is enthusiastic and privileged to serve the families in the City of Joplin, and be a part of the effort to rebuild Joplin. We look forward to demonstrating our passion to positively impact the lives of the residents we are honored to serve.”
