

RANDY BROZEN `01 MFA

President

Art Alumni Group, CCNY

Randy Brozen is an award-winning New York based artist and educator with an MFA in Sculpture from the City College of New York, where she is a faculty member in the Childhood Education program of the School of Education since 2003. She is the current President of the City College Alumni Association's Art Alumni Group.

As an Artist-in-Residence, Teaching Artist and Art Consultant, she has taught art to all age groups in many different settings, including Henry Street Settlement, Abrons Arts Center, Wave Hill Public Gardens, The Brooklyn Botanic Gardens, The Riverdale Country School, and many public schools throughout NYC! She especially loves to help her students discover their own inner artist!

Artwork:

Randy considers herself a "Paper" artist; however, she works in a variety of media, including fused glass, hand-made paper, photography, printmaking, bookmaking, drawing, 3-dimensional work and more.

Her work has been shown throughout the New York area, and is in the collection of Central Synagogue, NY; Dieu Donne Paper Mill; the Museum of Art and Design; the Akin Free Library and Museum, Pawling, NY and private collections.
