

PRAYER FOR SACRED WOMANHOOD

Magdalene, daughter of the Great Mother
You opened your soul, your mind, your body
Giving yourself fully to your own true nature
To the Sacred Womanhood that lives within us all

I come this day seeking my own sacred image of this womanhood

My own sacred fullness

And that which lies in and behind -

- My own pure light nature

May even for a moment I glance at her
And she at me, losing and finding myself
In the indivisible light of my being
