"Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much."- Helen Keller

As our school year is coming to an end, this is a great time for reflection.

St. Peter's School and Parish has accomplished a lot in the past year. As I sat in the church pew during the May Crowning ceremony this week, I was moved by the beauty around me. Of course, one part of that beauty is the renovation of the church--which is absolutely gorgeous. As I describe the renovation to others, I can only use one word: awe. Thank you to everyone involved in making the renovations possible for all of us to enjoy! We are such a lucky Parish!

Another part of the beauty of St. Peter's is the people. I am always rejuvenated when I see our students, parents, and parishioners coming together to celebrate and rejoice. Even though this generation of young people are facing so many different and difficult challenges compared to what most of us faced at their age, they are amazing. The pure love that they have never fails to inspire me. I'd like to think that St. Peter's has had a part in developing that love. As I watched all of our students during May Crowning, I saw students going out of their way to encourage other students. I saw younger students running up and throwing their arms around the older students. I saw students making a cognizant effort to greet adults in the pews. I know you've all heard me say this before, but we truly have amazing young people! I can't wait to see how they change the world!

St. Peter's School cannot be successful without many hands. Luckily, we do have many people willing to sacrifice their time and energy to help maintain and pursue excellence. I want to personally thank everyone who has helped our schools! I hope as we embark on our next school year, we will continue to have the support from others. Now more than ever, students and schools (ours and nationwide) need unconditional love, support, understanding, and kindness. We are all privileged to be a part of developing these young people academically and spiritually. Please pray for our students, teachers, and administrators. And please remember to grant grace to all of them, especially when you may not fully agree with a decision that has been made. That's where the real support lies. I honestly believe that nothing can stop St. Peter's School if we truly work together!

Thank you for investing in St. Peter's School! I will be praying for all of you and your families, as I hope you will be praying for me and my family. I wish you all a safe summer.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WISH LIST

As we are preparing for our 2019 Vacation Bible School which will take place at Saint Peter's on July 8—11, we are looking forward to having a lot of fun with all the young parishioners of our parish doing crafts, learning about the mysteries of faith, playing games and meeting new friends.

Below is a wish list that would be wonderful to have for our Bible School. In the past the parish has been so cooperative in helping to provide some of these items for us for which we cannot be more thankful. Because of your generosity we are able to keep VBS cost effective for everyone to have the opportunity to attend.

Please look over our wish list and prayerfully consider if you are able to provide any of these items. If you are, please drop off the items in the parish office during normal business hours (besides any perishable food items that would have to be dropped off closer to the start of VBS). We also do accept monetary donations to help sponsor children who were unable to pay the registration fee for the week and for other associated costs. If you would like to donate, we would appreciate receiving the donation by June 20 to allow us to plan for those items still needed.

Thank you for your continued support and continued generosity!

150TH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY NOTES

In the mid to late 1960's with Monsignor Hebbeler as Pastor, enrollment peaked in both the elementary and high school.

An abandoned church building on the corner of First and Mulberry Streets had been purchased in the early 1960's for an additional four classrooms—two on the top floor and two on the bottom floor. Later, the two classrooms on the top floor were changed into a small gymnasium. This building came to be called the Annex.

A very heartfelt thanks to all who made our Easter Bake Sale so successful. Thanks to all who bought, baked, prayed, publicized and donated in any way to the sale. Thanks to the students, staff of the schools, and of the parish who helped in so many ways. A very special thanks to the amazing staff of the cafeteria—without whose cooperation we could not do this project.

Deep gratitude to the many wonderful, hardworking volunteers who spent so much time and effort making the pierogis, cabbage rolls, candy, poticas, and preparing eggs and making the salads, the lunches, and so many parts of this huge project.

Your hard work, diligence, generosity, and kindness is truly an inspiration to all. Your efforts are the motivating example to our youngsters of the power of charity.

So many working in so many parts and it all works so well and you achieve so much. You raised over $19,500 for wine, hosts and other needs for liturgy.

The opportunity for fellowship is priceless. We are most grateful and humbled by your support.

Molly and Ann

God has, in fact, thought of us from eternity and has loved us as unique individuals. He has called every one of us by name, as the Good Shepherd 'calls His sheep by name.'

Pope St. John Paul II

SHEPHERDS LIKE JESUS

Each year the Fourth Sunday of Easter celebrates Jesus the Good Shepherd. Today's Gospel seems especially timely, for as Christians worldwide suffer persecution like Paul and Barnabas, Jesus promises his sheep enduring, invincible safety: 'They shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand.' But we who are free to live our faith peacefully sometimes take our membership in Jesus' flock for granted, wandering astray to seek our own pleasure and prosperity. The simple cross that Pope Francis always wears seems to show us how Jesus responds to that. Francis's cross features an image of Jesus, who has sought and found a lost sheep, then joyfully set it on his shoulders to carry it gently home. May Good Shepherd Sunday inspire us, so often lost and found ourselves, to assist Jesus in seeking, finding, and gently carrying home our fellow precious lambs.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reception of Holy Communion at Sunday Mass is such an expected feature of the Mass these days that it is surprising to realize that for many centuries, receiving Communion was a relatively rare event in the life of a faithful Christian. "Easter Duty" means that Catholics must celebrate reconciliation, if aware of serious sin, and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. For a while, this was a requirement of Easter week, and later extended to the whole season of fifty days, and even beyond that by a few weeks. For the majority of people long ago, this meant Communion was a once-a-year moment. A rather complex bureaucracy grew up around this rule in the Middle Ages. Amazingly, people received a kind of token at confession admitting them to Communion in their home parish, which then kept careful records and reported them to the bishop.

Surviving records can tell us a great deal about our ancestors. In fact, people were encouraged to journey to the church of their baptism in order to fulfill their duty, and therefore the Easter Duty includes in its origins a grateful pilgrimage to the font in which you were first embraced by Christ. If your "Holy Mother Church" is within driving distance, why not make a pilgrimage to that font a feature of your Easter celebration of these fifty days?
