WHAT IS MARAMA?

The Mid-Atlantic Regional Air Management Association, Inc. (MARAMA) is a cooperative association of Mid-Atlantic air pollution control agencies. MARAMA was organized on February 26, 1990. MARAMA became incorporated as of October 1, 2006.

With the support of member agencies and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, MARAMA promotes cooperation and coordination among the air quality programs of member states and local agencies.

The following state and local air pollution control agencies are MARAMA members: Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Philadelphia, and Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

OUR MISSION

To strengthen the skills and capabilities of our member agencies and help them work together to prevent and reduce air pollution impacts in the Mid-Atlantic Region. Activities include training workshops, technical studies, and coordination.

OUR GOALS

Training: MARAMA workshops and support for training improve the technical knowledge and skills of the staff of Mid-Atlantic air pollution control agencies.

Common Projects: MARAMA publications and contracts help member agencies to develop and share information and to accomplish projects that have common benefit.

Cooperation: MARAMA meetings and the development of unified position statements increase communication, understanding, and mutual support among Mid-Atlantic air pollution control programs.

Recipients of MARAMA Outstanding Service Award

Andy Bollman, North Carolina and Susan McCusker, MARAMA

February 2025

In recognition of their expertise and leadership in emissions inventory development. Their contributions to inventory growth factor methodologies and his ability to bridge diverse perspectives were instrumental in shaping the 2022v1 Emission Modeling Platform (EMP) inventory.

Jessica Munyan, New Jersey and Min Zhong, Pennsylvania

In recognition of their outstanding leadership and dedication to the R-Exchange workgroup. Their vision, organization, and coordination of the R-training series have expanded the R-Exchange community, fostered knowledge sharing, and enhanced R's value for mid-Atlantic agencies and beyond

Jillian Gallagher, Delaware and Sherry Tostenson, Virginia

February 2024

In recognition of their contribution to MARAMA's overall training program and for consistently contributing input and suggestions regarding training needs, instructors, and for their assistance with on-site logistics for various MARAMA training courses.

Doris Mcleod and Jin-Sheng Lin, Virginia; Wendy Jacobs, Connecticut;

March 2023

Emily Bull, Maryland; Joseph Jakuta, District of Columbia;

Tom Richardson, Oklahoma; Mark Janssen, LADCO; Byeong Kim, Georgia, and

Eric Zalewsky, Winston Hao, Jeongran Yun, and Yuhong (Ruby) Tian, New York

In recognition of their outstanding contributions to emissions inventory development.

Tim Davis, Melissa Evanego, and Jeff Kennedy, New Jersey

March 2022

In recognition of their leadership and contributions in the quest to stop increased emissions from vehicle tampering and for leading the MARAMA 2022 Vehicle Tampering Workshop

Mark Prettyman, Delaware

March 2022

In recognition of his contributions in getting the R Exchange Workgroup up and running, providing a setting for MARAMA agency staff to share and collaborate on projects that use R for statistical computing and graphics.

Joseph Jakuta, District of Columbia

March 2021

In recognition of Joseph Jakuta and his numerous contributions to regional and national inventory workgroups in his current position as well as his previous position working for the OTC.

Shane Cone, Delaware

March 2020

In recognition of Shane Cone's contribution to MARAMA's R Programming Language training and Commercial Marine Vessels (CMV) Workgroup. In both endeavors, he is a productive team member who welcomes informed and productive debate of issues and consistently comes to the table well-prepared.

Sean Nolan, Pennsylvania

March 2020

In recognition of his leadership as the Chair of MARAMA's 2019 Monitoring Committee Training Workshop. Sean worked diligently on developing the agenda, inviting speakers, collaborating with state agencies, serving as moderator, and engaging all the attendees with his humor and wit throughout the workshop.

Larry Si, New Jersey

February 2019

In recognition of his contribution to MARAMA's overall training program and for consistently contributing input and suggestions regarding training needs, instructors, and for his assistance with on-site logistics for various MARAMA training courses.

Judy Rand, New Jersey

February 2019

In recognition of her leadership and collaboration with the regional emissions inventory workgroups since the 2002 inventory. Most recently her contribution to help update the emissions reductions for the 2016 Collaborative Inventory effort was invaluable.

Marilee Tretina, Sherry Tostenson, Todd Alonzo, and Kevin Vaughn, Virginia

February 2018

In recognition of their contribution to MARAMA's overall training program and for consistently contributing input and suggestions regarding training needs and strategies not only to MARAMA but to the Joint Training Committee as well.

Nick Lazor, Pennsylvania

February 2017

In recognition of his leadership as Chair of MARAMA's Monitoring Committee, and his service as organizer and moderator of MARAMA's Annual Monitoring Committee Workshop.

Yogesh Doshi, Virginia

February 2017

In recognition of his work as an ambassador for successful diesel emission reduction projects and his support of MARAMA and the Mid-Atlantic Diesel Collaborative

Hannah Ashenafi and Emily Bull, Maryland

February 2016

In appreciation of their work to develop temporal profiles for small Electric Generating Units that operate primarily during peak electricity demand periods.

Paula Hemmer, North Carolina

February 2016

In recognition of her leadership and collaboration with representatives from Virginia, West Virginia, South Carolina, and affected utilities to improve estimates of future growth in emissions from electric generating units.

Tony Sadar, Allegheny County

February 2015

In recognition of both the improvements he has made to regional emissions inventories and his very popular webinar course on AERMOD for Non-Modelers.

Danny Wong, New Jersey

February 2014

In recognition of his excellent leadership in developing methods to forecast future air pollutant emissions from Electric Generating Units.

Anthony Manson, Delaware

February 2013

In recognition of his excellent assistance with developing the Professional Development Training Guide and the EPA APTI Learning Management System.

Jin-Sheng Lin, Virginia

January 2012

In recognition of his excellent work in helping debug the new MOVES model for estimating Mobile Source Emissions and in supporting an inter-regional effort to improve forecasts of emissions from electricity generation.

Doris McLeod, Virginia

January 2011

In recognition of her outstanding Technical and Communication Support in developing collaborative inter-regional methods to estimate emissions from electricity generating units.

David Fees, Delaware January 2011

In recognition of his outstanding contributions to regional Emissions Inventory Development and Coordination.

Charles Pietarinen, New Jersey February 2010

In recognition of his outstanding service representing the region on The National Air Monitoring Steering Committee.

Alison Riley, Philadelphia February 2009

In recognition of her support for the Mid-Atlantic Diesel Collaborative.

James Snead, Delaware January 2008

For his superior performance in developing MARAMA's course on EPA's HON, MON, and Polymers & Resins MACT Standard.

Richard Rasmussen, Virginia January 2007

For his initiative in developing the APU retrofit program and his continuing support for reducing diesel emissions in the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Serpil Kayin, MARAMA August 2006

For her dedication to excellent service in mentoring junior staff members, managing projects, and facilitating cooperative regional efforts.

Roger Westman, Allegheny County August 2006

For his exceptional long-term dedication to and support of MARAMA.

Sean Nolan and Rob Altenburg, Pennsylvania January 2005

For developing an automated system that provides important forecast data to air quality forecasters throughout the MARAMA Region. Their efforts sped up collecting data from a variety of sources for many weather stations, thereby facilitating the work of all MARAMA agency forecasters.

Roger Thunell, Maryland January 2004

For outstanding work on the MANE-VU emissions inventory workgroup.

Brenda Eggleston, Virginia, Bridget Craig, Pennsylvania, James Yoder, Pennsylvania, Susan Hoyle, Pennsylvania, and Christopher Wheeling, Maryland. July 2003

For outstanding assistance with developing the Rutgers, Surface Coating Sampling, Transport, and VOC Content Calculations Course.

Ray Malenfant, Delaware August 2002

For regional and national leadership in improving visibility in National Parks and Wilderness Areas by improving coordination of the development of air pollutant emissions inventories that degrade visibility.

Wick Havens, Pennsylvania August 2001

For organizing the Mid-Atlantic Regional Technical Center Committee and coordinating development of an improved regional inventory for ozone modeling.

Pat Adkins, West Virginia, Betsy Frey, Delaware, Joseph Martini, Delaware, and Robert Stroik, Delaware

April 2000

For extraordinary contributions to the PM_{2.5} Data Management Project.

Joel Maddy, West Virginia

August 1999

For outstanding work analyzing the performance of ozone monitors and establishing a strong unified regional position addressing the needs of state and local agencies.

Randy Mosier, Maryland

January 1998

For outstanding service to the Mid-Atlantic Region in establishing the Ozone Mapping System.

Jayne Graham, Allegheny County

November 1996

For outstanding work in organizing the MARAMA Point Source Modeling Workshop.
