COMMUNITY COLLEGE

GREENYEARS

Presented by the Class of 1965

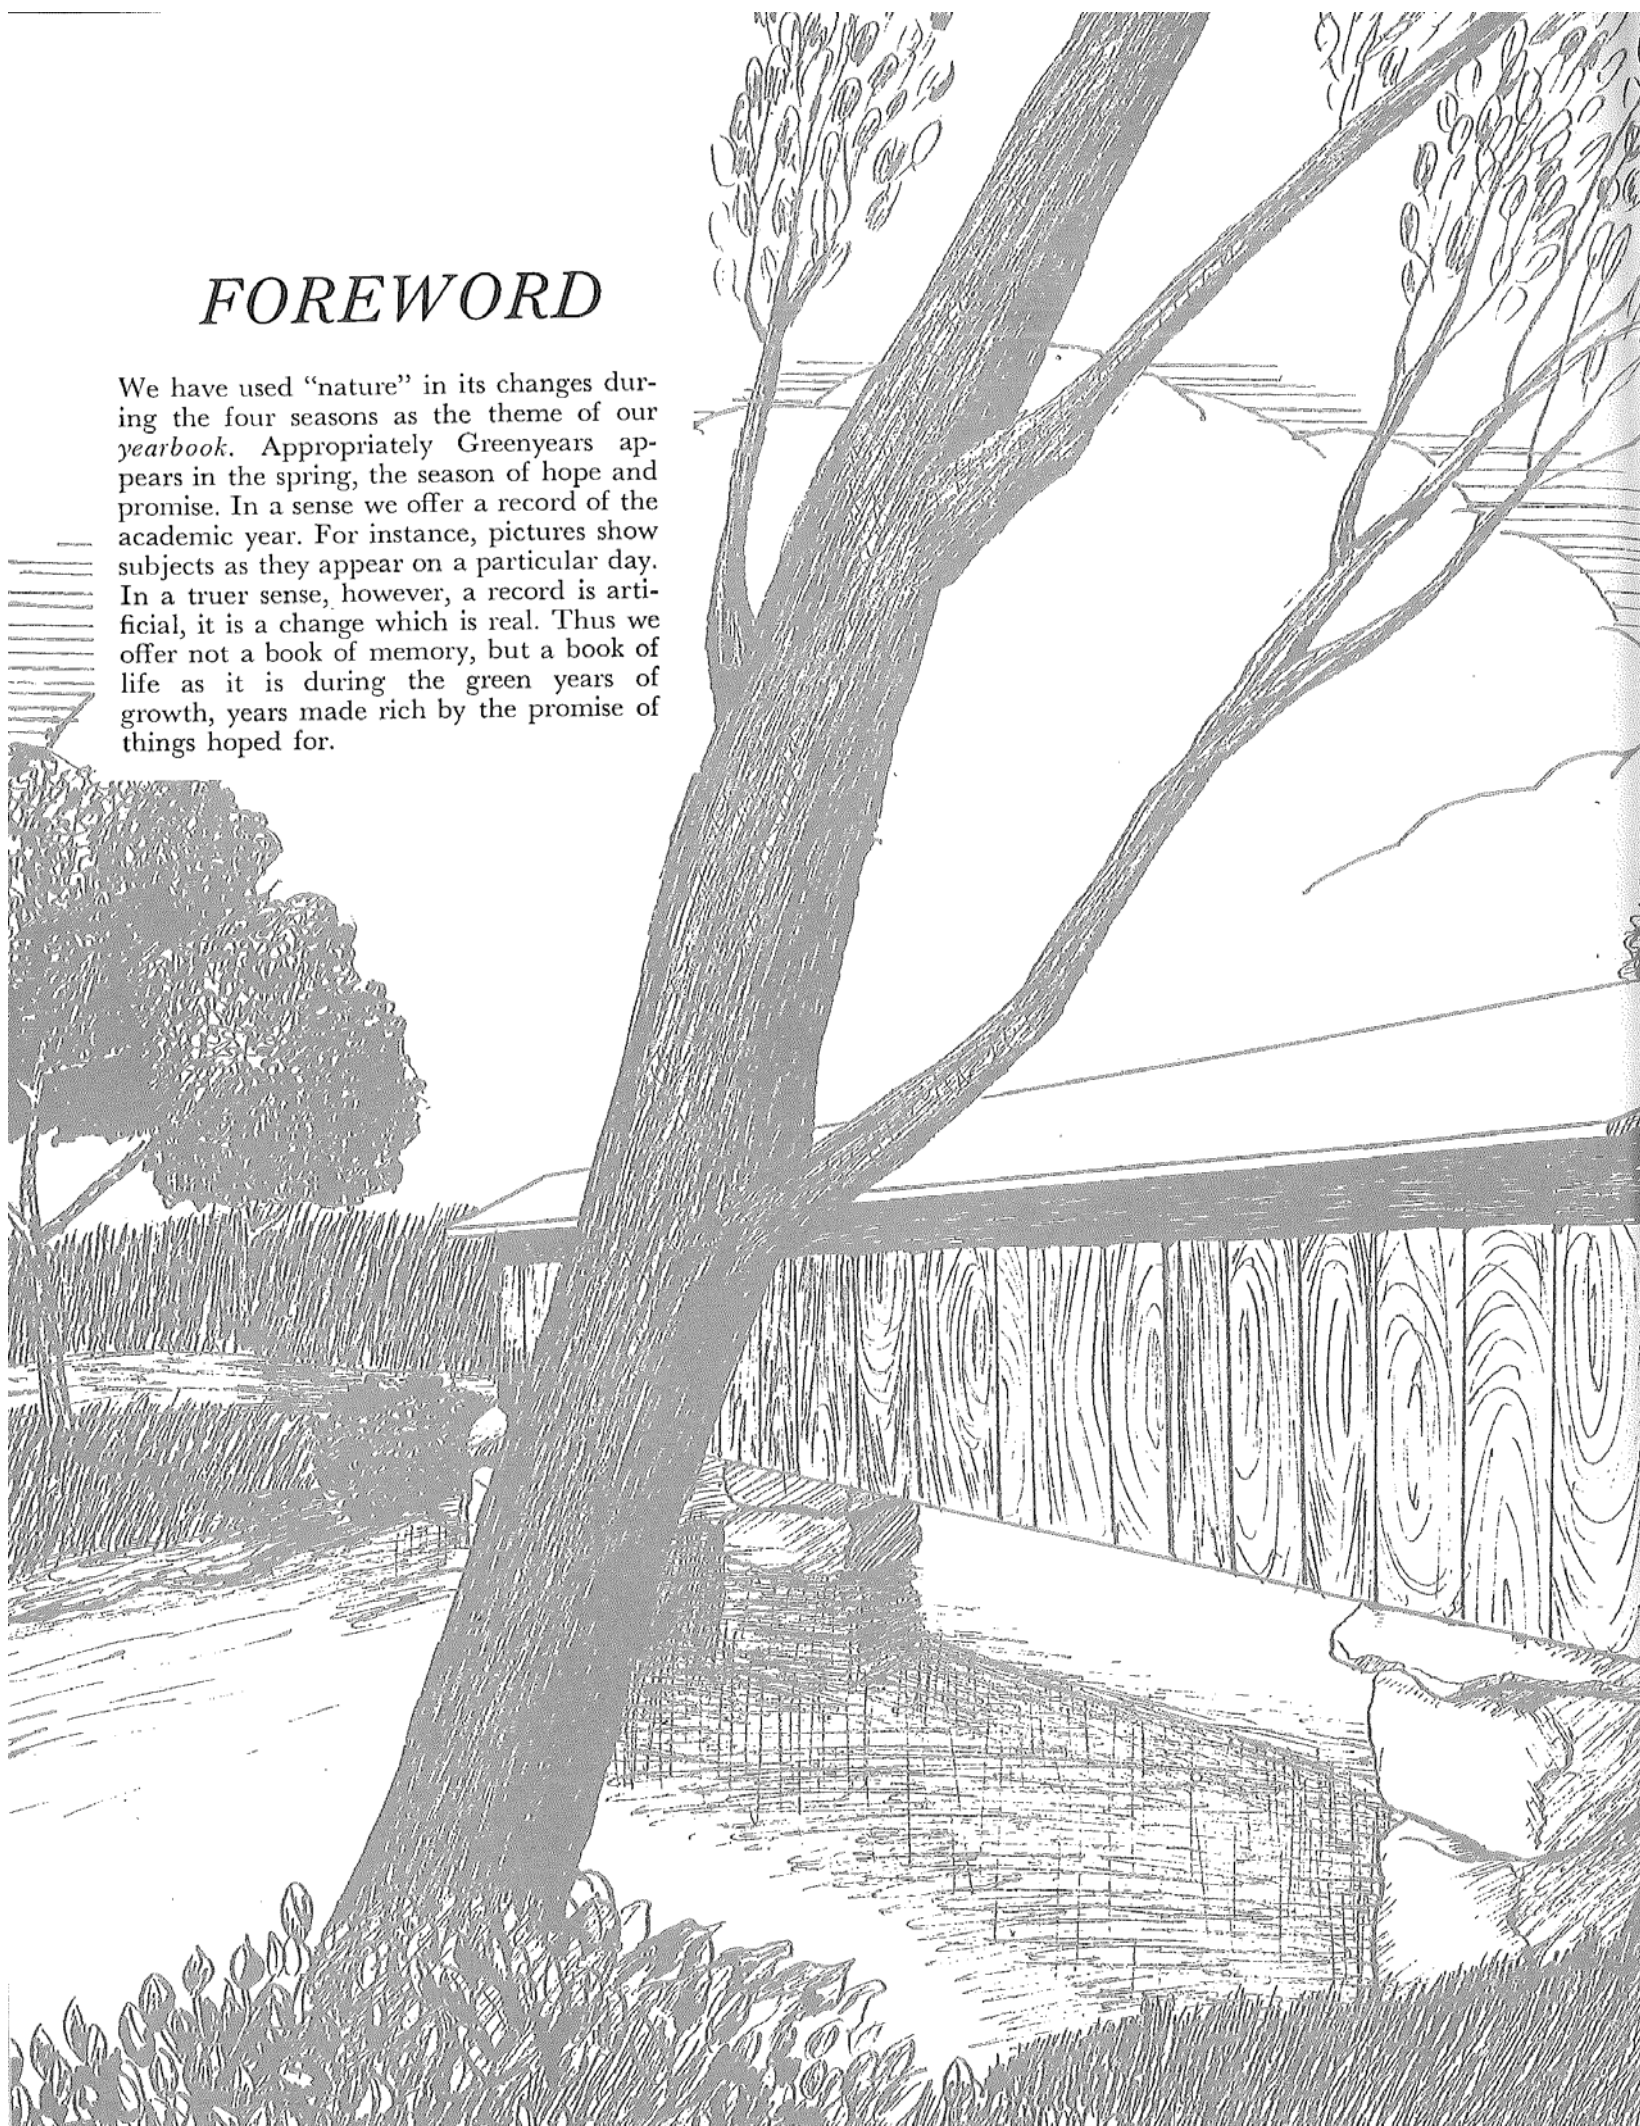

Massachusetts Bay Community College

Boston, Massachusetts

FOREWORD

We have used "nature" in its changes during the four seasons as the theme of our yearbook. Appropriately Greenyears appears in the spring, the season of hope and promise. In a sense we offer a record of the academic year. For instance, pictures show subjects as they appear on a particular day. In a truer sense, however, a record is artificial, it is a change which is real. Thus we offer not a book of memory, but a book of life as it is during the green years of growth, years made rich by the promise of things hoped for.

GREEN YEARS

By Jack Myers

These are the green years settled low in a meadow far from the noise of knitting where the unreality of poppies and clumsy hearts strain against the capping cork.

These are the green years days of dawn and freckled wonder that throttled through the skies open mouthed, tasting the orange coloured corners of youth.

These are the green years strewn with toppled mountains and fractured skies that snowed amidst the shouts and slamming doors of youth firing its dreams to the lint of life.

These are the green years that drenched the testing toe and dared to touch the unbeautiful that it was beautiful to touch.

*These are the green years
spun deliciously dizzy on a merry-go* round

the far flung deep sung

low slung

cry of a never again

heard bird.

DEDICATION

We, the graduates of 1965, dedicate our yearbook, the "Greenyears", to our parents. It was through their devotion and sacrifices during these years that we have learned the wisdom to seek success and have the courage to continue on the road to knowledge. By this dedication, we hope to show our appreciation and gratitude for the opportunities they have given us, not during just the past two years, but throughout our lives.

Dear Members of the Class of 1965:

Each of you is about to embark on a new phase in your respective careers. It is my sincere hope that you will approach it with a sense of adventure and challenge and also with a deep feeling of commitment. Your role is to be one of leadership and influence in the community of which you are a part.

I urge you to keep constantly in mind the ideals of integrity, excellence, and dedication with which your faculty have imbued you both by precept and example.

Be mindful always of the reputation of your College which you have been instrumental in developing. You will play a leading part in what your College is to become. We wish for each of you the best of good luck and will await eagerly the successes which we are sure await your future efforts.

Sincerely,

John F. McKenzie

CLASS HISTORY

September of 1963 found us all in a state of confusion on registration day. After walking around with our heads in the clouds for a few weeks, we finally settled down to the beginning of our college years. In order to show that college wasn't all academic, the sophomores gave us our first taste of social life at the Orientation Dance (what a lasting taste).

Then came the school elections which showed the birth of our true college spirit. A short time after the campaign, we all suffered the loss of our beloved President Kennedy as well as one of our wonderful faculty members, Dr. Parnell, which left a very somber note for all of us.

Before long the talent of our class was introduced to all at the dramatic presentation of "Legend at Raikes Cross" and also our class experienced its first college Hootenanny. The joyous holiday season brought with it the annual Christmas Dance and the Orphans' Party which was enjoyed by all. We'll never forget January of 1964 which initiated us to our first college finals. (After five days of taking No-Doz, it was scientifically proven that there were 33% fewer students attending MBCC).

Next came the highlight for all our Italian friends, The Spaghetti Dinner Dance. Then once again our talent burst forth at the annual Variety Show where faculty as well as students participated. Culminating the social life of our freshman year was the Freshman Dinner Dance which was held at the Sheraton Plaza and was featured by the crowning of the king and queen, Ann and Vinny.

Even though our freshman year had ended officially, our school spirit still continued on through the summer in the preparation of a successful orientation program for the incoming freshman class.

We finally reached the threshold of our sophomore year (that is, we who finally made it). After a hard fought election battle, Jim Better became our S.G.A. President for the ensuing year. The presentation of the gavel took place at the Election Dance. At the Halloween Masquerade Dance, our auditorium was invaded by our own witches and goblins. Also the Drama Club certainly excelled that fall in its fine presentation of "Come Blow Your Horn."

Our class will never forget the glowing faces of the children at the annual Orphans' Party which gave Christmas a deeper meaning to us all. Gaiety and splendor was shared by all at the Holly Ball. After the tedious weeks of finals, all participated in outdoor sports at Killington, Vermont, resulting in the unveiling of many unknown "Olympic" stars.

With the doors of MBCC closing slowly behind us, the traditional Sophomore Week approached. Beginning with the Yearbook Luncheon and concluding with the beautiful Commencement Ball, it was a week that will remain in our hearts, minds, and memories forever.

Thus, our years at Mass. Bay have come to a close, but none of us will ever forget the everlasting friends we made and the many memories we all shared.

PLAYPEN PLANNERS

What's wrong with our Constitution?

Will the members please assemble in the Romper Room?

So what if I wasn't picked as a Gerber Baby!

These starch collars will drive me crazy!

I am sorry I am late Mr. President, I overslept.

I made Dean's List, what's your excuse?

Who says I don't pay attention at the meetings?

Why are my motions always denied???

So I don't have a tie on, at least MY diaper's clean.

Mr. Chairman, may I please be excused — these things do happen!!

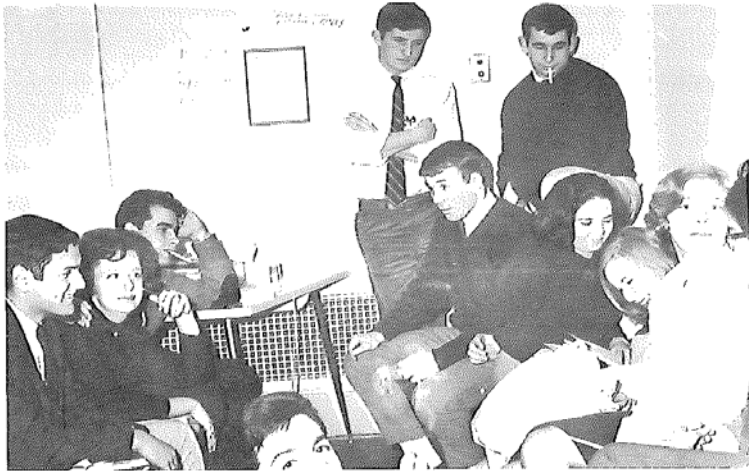

Don't take it so hard, that's all you need is a 4.0 to remain at MBCC.

Don't bother me about trivial matters, let's discuss the price.

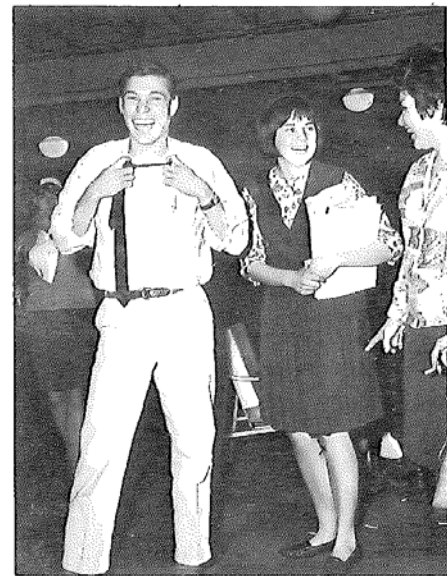

1. James Better, 2. Mary Anello, 3. George Close
4. Nick Bibby, 5. George Harden, 6. Diane Pressman

CONFUSION

First Aid Room — No Loitering!

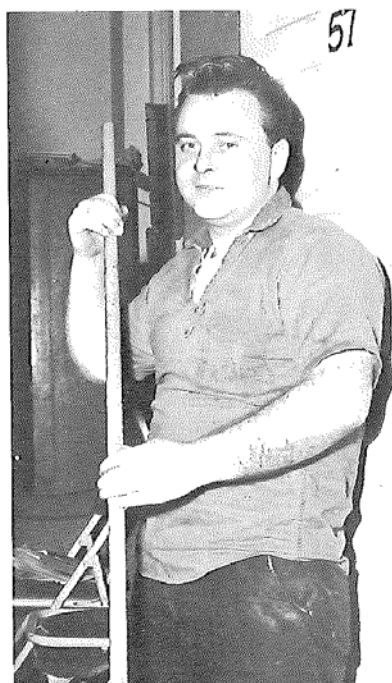

The Tie That Bound!

And you think YOU have a crowded locker.

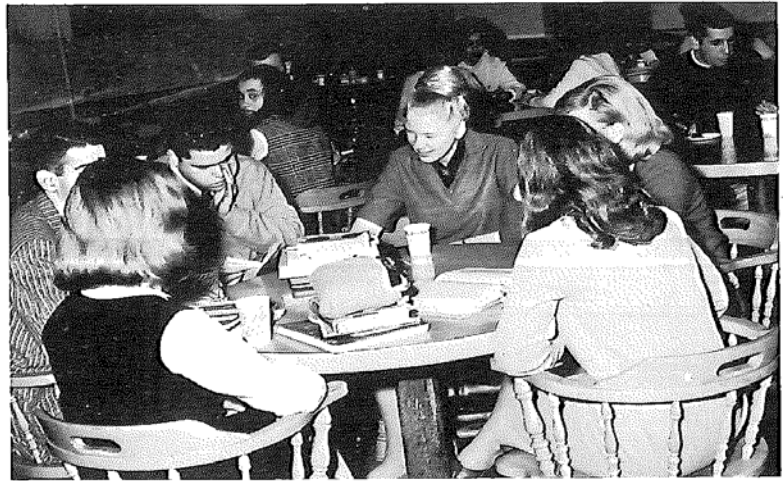

Oh, those darn elevators!

Where should I begin?

Welcome to our Humble Abode.

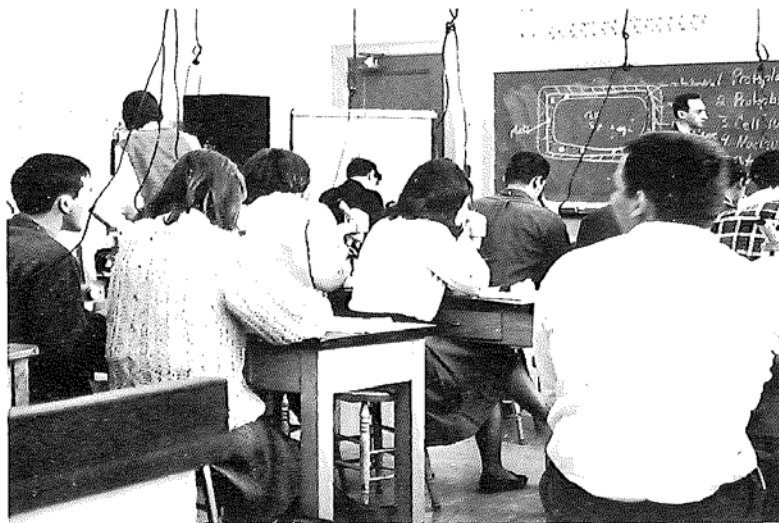

Study area — Third floor

On your mark, get set, go!

Just two more and you're there.

Formaldehyde? I thought it was Chanel No. 5.

MBCC BEAUTY CONTEST

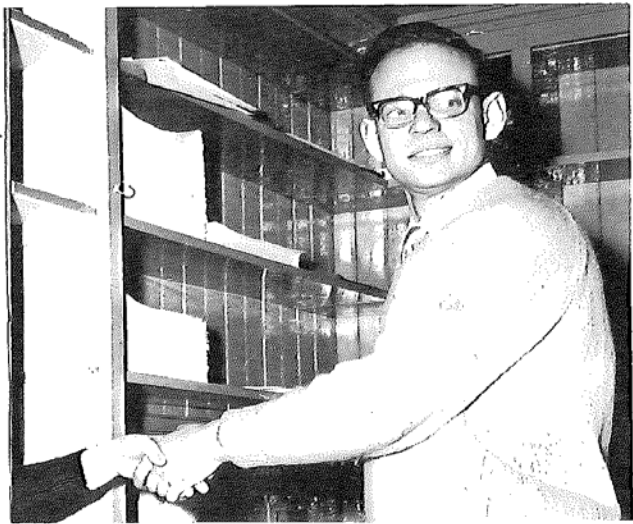

To Each His Own.

How much did we make?

How does it stand?

The editor won? It must be a mistake.

What page does the winner go on?

I disagree!

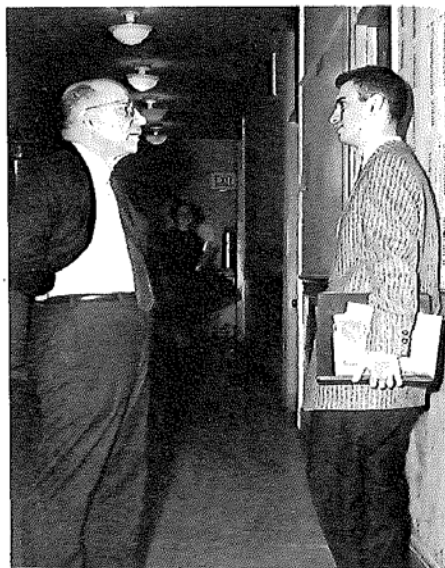

This is one placement that certainly will succeed.

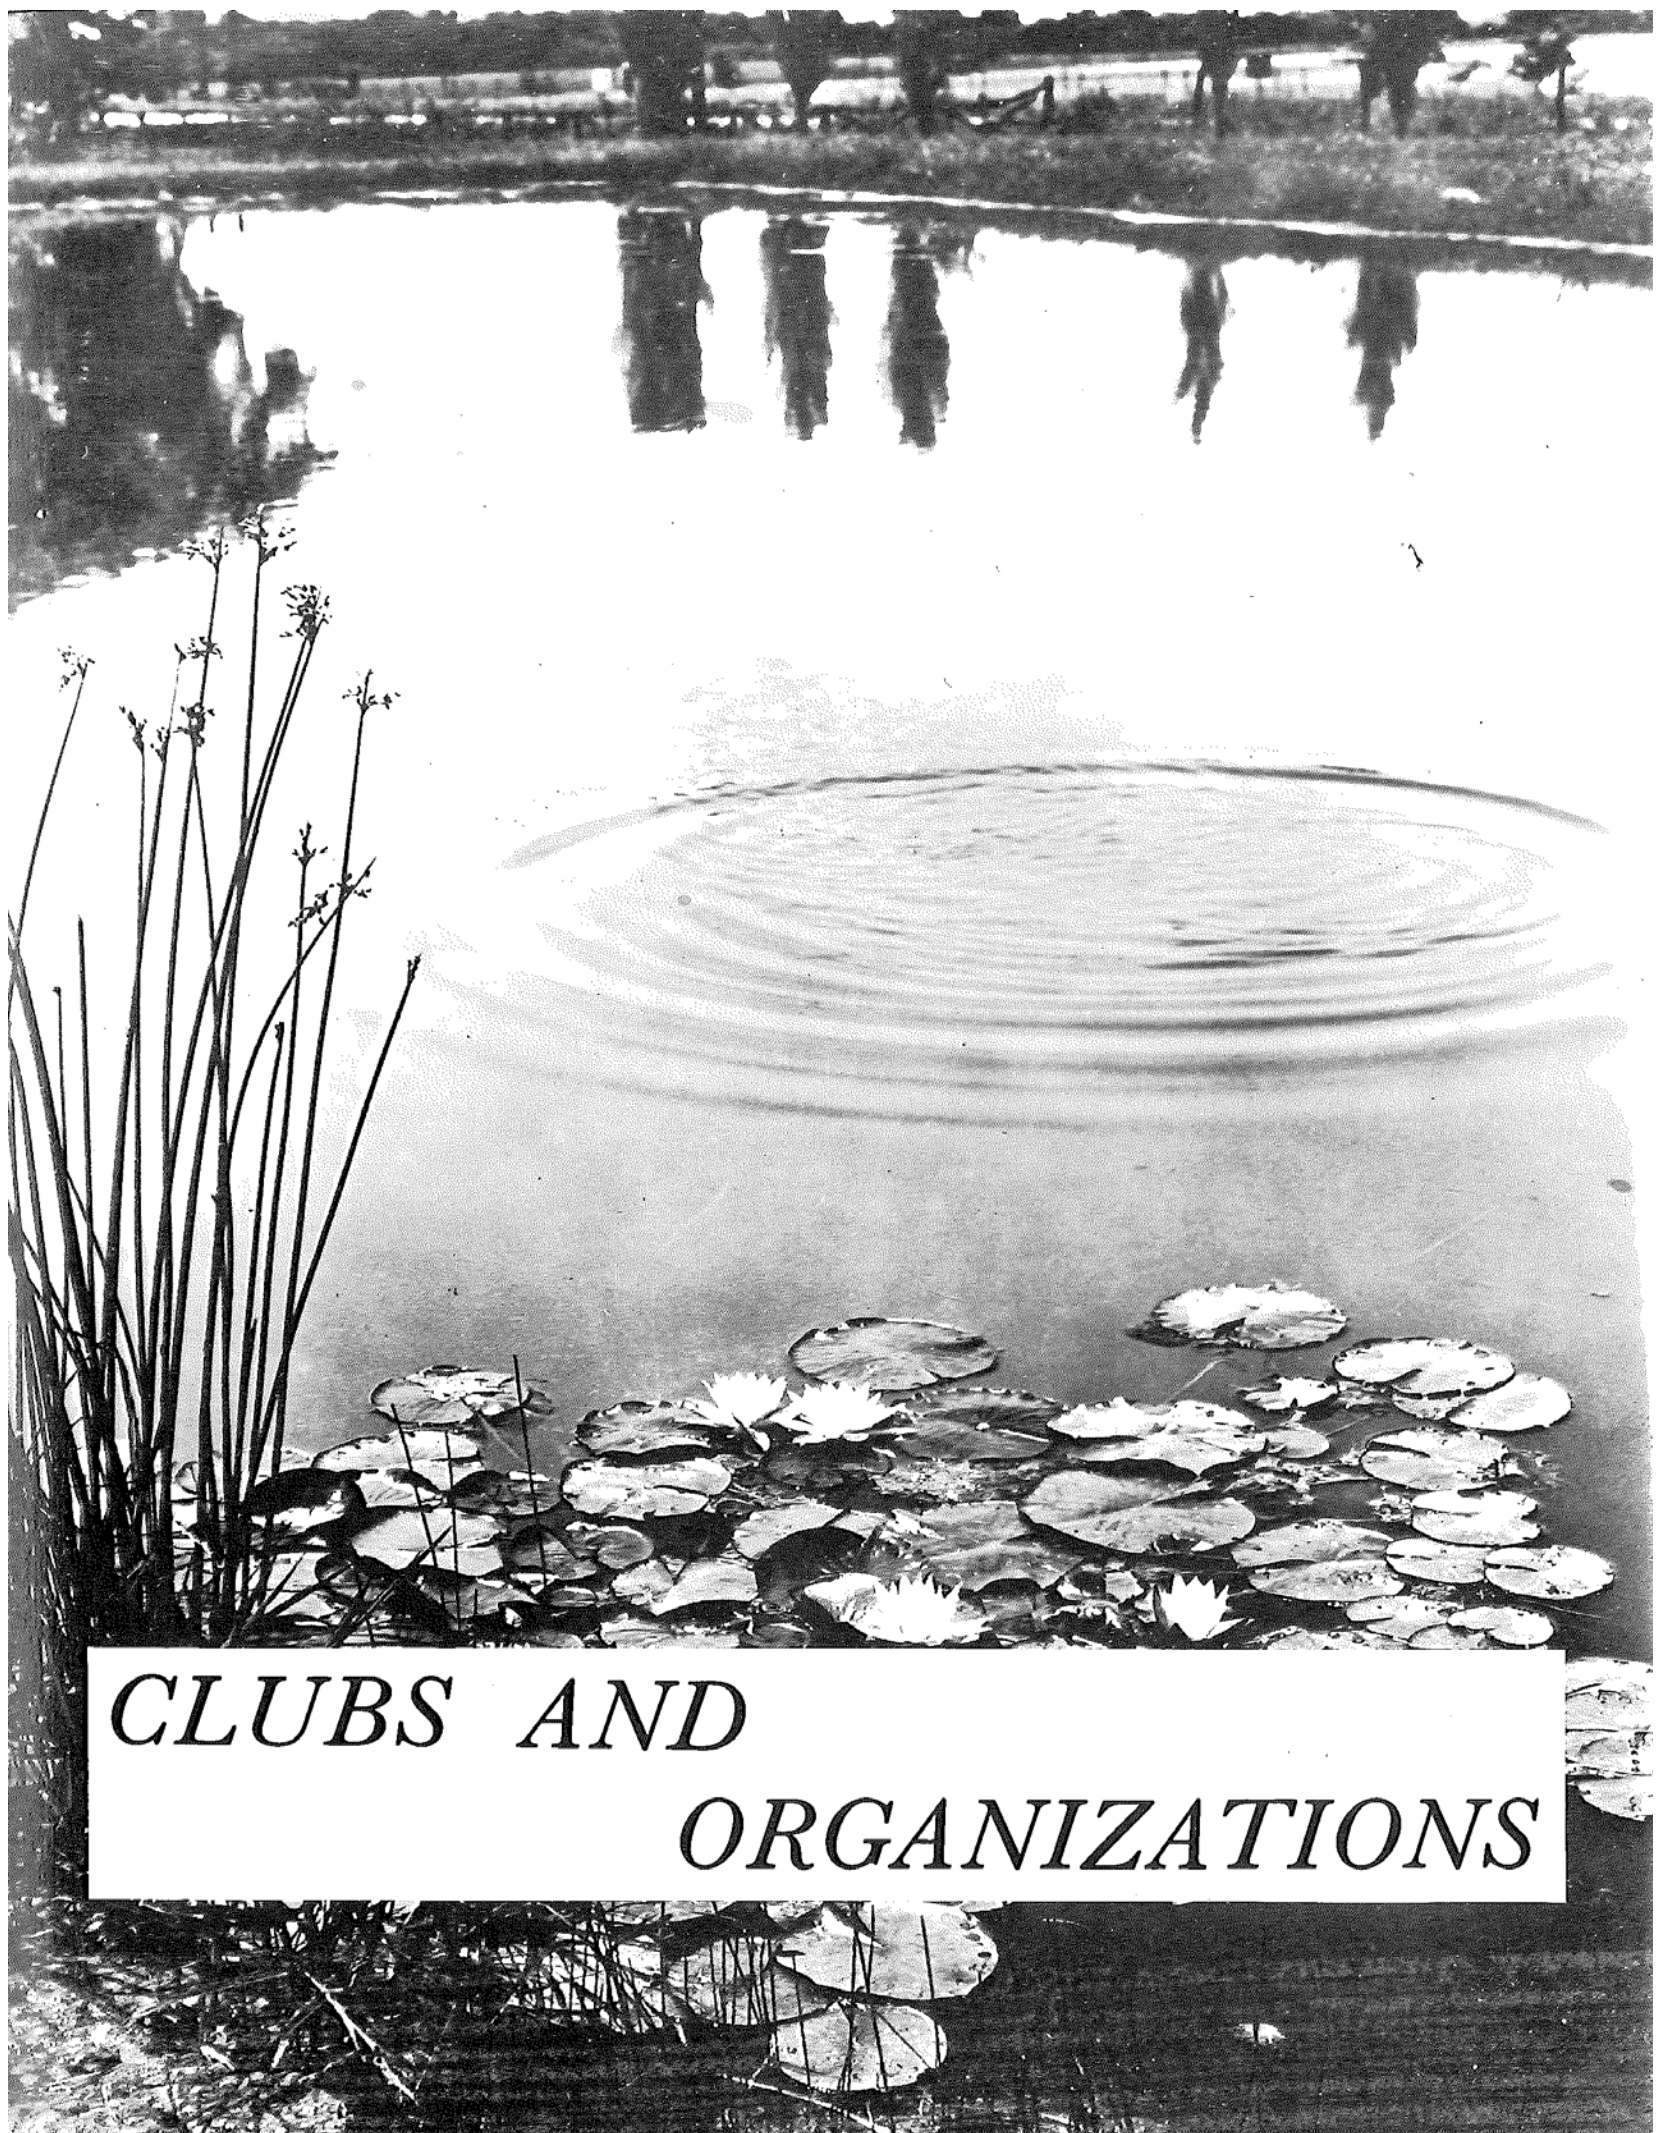

Don't worry, he's good-natured.

WHAT!

WHY didn't you have time to prepare your speech?

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

GREEN

The 1965 staff of the Greenyears has worked extremely hard in compiling a book of the many fond memories which you, the student body, have enjoyed during your years at MBCC.

This organization has encountered numerous problems and has worked for many long and seemingly never-ending hours in order to make this edition a memorable one for all. It is because of the staff's vast interest and devotion in their work that they feel that the 1965 edition of the Greenyears has improved both in its quality and in its size.

There were many days when both the editor and the staff grew despondent and thought it impossible to ever complete this book; but as the candles burned out and the sun began to shine, we always managed to meet our deadlines on time. The knowledge and experience which one gains by taking part in producing this publication are a rewarding and satisfying accomplishment.

We, the staff, would like to thank each and every individual who contributed to the Greenyears and helped make it a memorable edition.

STUDENT

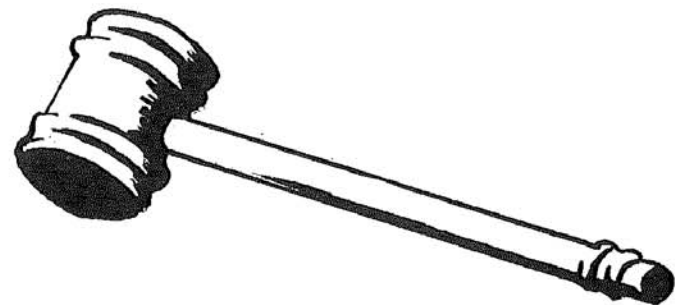

The Student Council, whose members are elected by the students, is concerned with the welfare and entertainment of students and with relationships between the students and the college. The Council provides for social, cultural, athletic and academic activities through clubs, teams, dances, teas, and many other special activities, and allocates financial support for such activities and occasions. The Council tries to encourage initiative and leadership and provide the means for it to be effective.

The Student Council is a local illustration of the democratic process at work. Prospective members present themselves to the student body in a pre-election campaign, students vote by secret ballot, the results are announced as the office holders. This duly elected body then has responsibility for providing leadership and direction for student life and assuring support for approved activities.

Ideally, the Council hopes that each student will participate in the activities which are provided and that he will find them a cherished part of his college life.

COUNCIL

SILVER KEY

Silver Key is an honorary activities society designed to recognize the contributions made by students in the college and the wider community. Although selection is primarily based on leadership, participation, and unselfish contribution of one's time, energy, and ability; the student must also be making satisfactory progress in his academic pursuits. Membership in this organization represents the highest honor this College can bestow for outstanding leadership and service to the community of which we are a part.

On November 29, 1964, the Winter Tapping was held at Boston University's Marsh Chapel. Thirteen initiates came forth to be Tapped in a moving and solemn ceremony. The Program was highlighted by the presentation of a Plaque to President and Mrs. John F. McKenzie for their outstanding leadership and unselfish contributions to the College.

THE BAY WINDOW

The Bay Window is Mass. Bay's bi-weekly informer of social events, cultural activities, editorials, sports, etc., on and off the campus. Its contents encourage the participation of all students in the affairs and activities of the College in a well-developed manner. The Bay Window staff feels it has accomplished much in seeing the students of MBCC reading their finished product and benefiting from it.

Fred Albrandi
Helen Dworkin

The Student Activities Committee is a standing committee of the Student Government Association consisting of a chairman, who is appointed by the President of the Student Council; and five members all of whom work under the direction of the Student Activities Advisor. Its goals are to develop a well-rounded activities calendar, socially, culturally, and educationally, to involve as many students as possible in the learning process which the Student Activities Program offers and to contribute to the planning, organization and execution of all student activities.

The committee's specific responsibilities are to appoint a chairman for each social, cultural and athletic event, to set-up an activities calendar, to act as a liaison to the Student Council, to serve as activities consultants to students and faculty, to continually evaluate and re-evaluate the activities program by conferring with student committees and clubs and reviewing final reports, and of utmost importance, to constantly strive for better public relations — a more efficient method of communicating with Student Council, student body, faculty and outside guest.

PIERIA

Pieria, MBCC's new literary magazine, went into publication this year. The magazine owes its existence to the enthusiasm of a handful of students and professors. The magazine's purpose is to provide an outlet for talented students and faculty. This will be accomplished by periodically publishing short stories, essays, poetry, and critical reviews.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club of MBCC presented its first three-act play, "Come Blow Your Horn," on December 4 and 5. This play was such a tremendous success that the Club presented a fine musical in the spring for the student body.

The year's activities also included three theatre parties to present to the students more understanding of the live theatre.

The Club shares part of the humanities bulletin board in illustrating important theatrical events within the Boston locale.

GLEE CLUB

It is the purpose of the Glee Club to present concerts of the finest music at all college functions. We believe that there is much musical talent at MBCC and that this talent will be discovered in the Glee Club.

Music is a most important discipline in the humanities. Beautiful music can delight and motivate our every activity both on and off the campus. The Club has as its aim to build a lofty tradition of living service to the fine arts with resulting pride of accomplishment.

SECRETARIAL CLUB

The purpose of this club is to supplement the secretarial program by bringing girls together that have the same interests and goals. Its function is also to stimulate their thinking and to increase their ability to lead and to create. This is done by various activities and affairs. Speakers from numerous organizations and companies have given the members of the Club a broader understanding of the "Professional Secretary."

The program for the year was one of great interest and enjoyment. In November, National Secretaries' Association presented us with a guest speaker which dealt with the club's association with other colleges. During the month of December, we had a hair stylist. In February, a speaker from the airlines gave a very enlightening speech. At the end of April, the Club presented the Annual Fashion Show. This was our main event and one in which all our members participated.

Professor Rheaume

The Hospitality Committee was organized in September of 1963. Its purpose is to serve refreshments at school functions; such as Humanities Series and Social Teas. The members of the Committees learn how to prepare and serve refreshments for large groups. They also learn helpful hints that will be valuable to them in future years.

HUMANITIES CLUB

It is the purpose of the Humanities Club to support cultural activities on campus, to promote interest in art, music, literature, and allied subjects. The Club sponsors trips to museums and concerts, holds meetings on matters of cultural interest, and maintains bulletin boards of current activities. The Club also supports the MBCC Humanities Series as well as similar functions.

BUSINESS CLUB

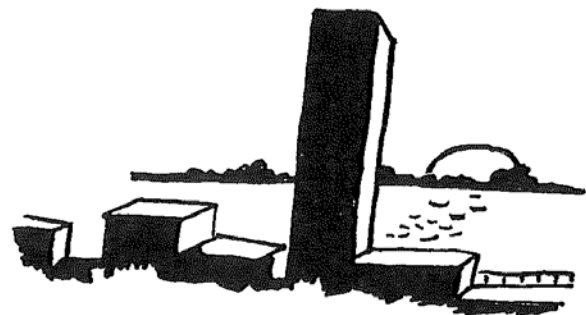

The Business Club serves the purpose of orientating the students of MBCC with the modern business world. It functions to provide opportunities for students to further develop their interest and knowledge of business procedures. To foster self-expression and to experience organizational programming is another important aspect of the club.

It shall be the duty of the members to promote the best interest of the college, and to strive for the greater unity of purpose and spirit in the college, and to solicit and express student opinion on any matter when requested to do so by the college.

Some of the club's various activities are field trips to local business plants; such as, the Boston Globe and New England Telephone Co. We, also, had lectures by well-known businessmen.

CAPTAINS OF INTERMURAL SPORTS

Football — George Close, George Harden, Nick Bibby; Hockey — Joe Giardano, Bob Port; Basketball — Barry Karas, Bob Collins.

SPORTS

COSA NOSTRA

The Cosa Nostra, champions and high scorers of the league, attributes its success to the fact that it was a well balanced team. The offense, first in the league, was paced by the scoring punch of standout halfback Tony Noviello. The massive and agile defensive unit, led by Mike "The Bear" Gallucio, was able to contend the best that faced, thus alleviating the pressure on the offense.

PACKERS

The Packers, surprise team of the league, captured the runnerup position in the final standings. The offense, which scored a total of 194 points, was spearheaded by the running ability of Bob Cunio and the line play of Mike Teixeira. The defensive team, one of the roughest seen this year, was centered around big Louis Gerwitz.

VIKINGS

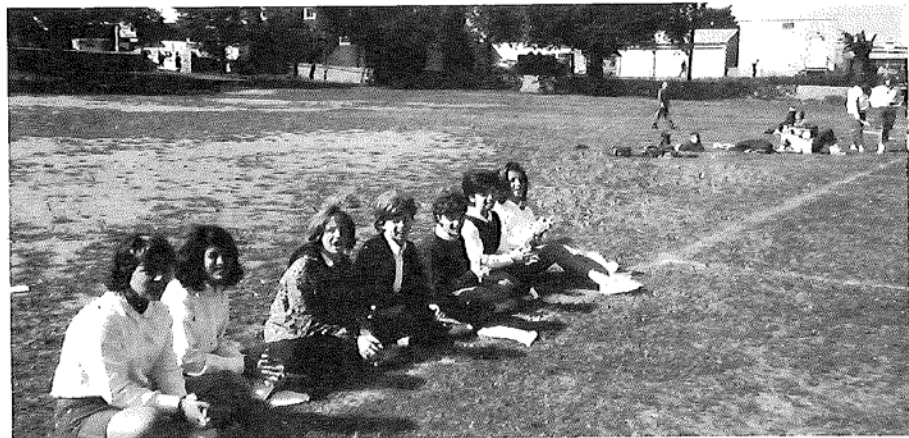

The show position in the final tally was captured this year by the Vikings. Its impressive 6-2 record is a tribute to the spirit and determination possessed by the members of the team. The offense was sparked by the adept quarterbacking of Bob O'Leary and the sure-handed catching of the end Bob Dick. The defensive end of the assignments was well handled by John Mulligan and George Harden.

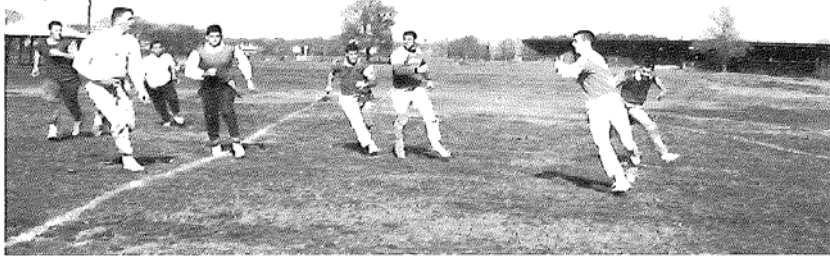

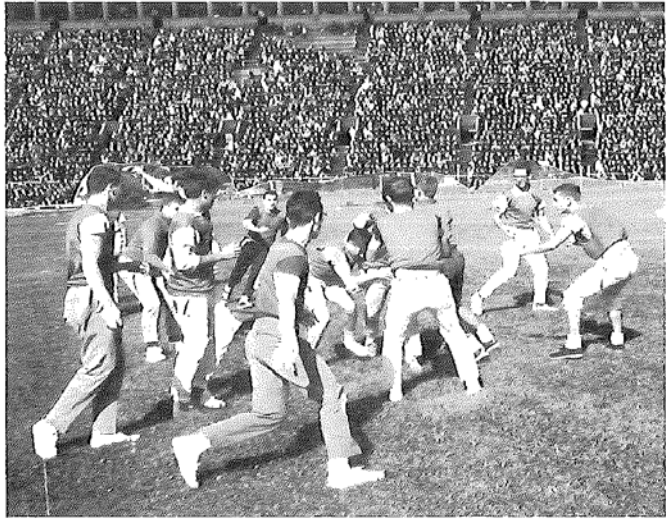

CHARGERS

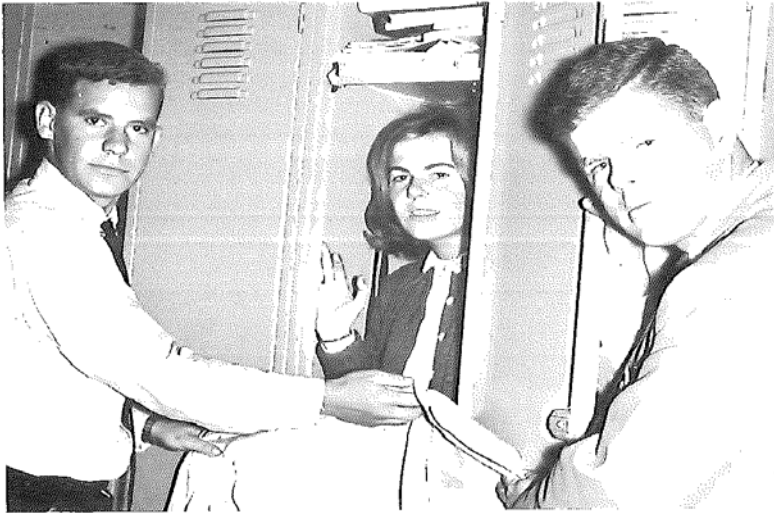

Fourth place went to the Charges, along with the experience gained by an all-freshman team. The offense was anchored down by the play of Don Uva while Nick Bibby took care of the defensive chores. The sportsmanship and spirit displayed by these boys gives promise of a strong and cohesive contender in the years to come.

RAIDERS

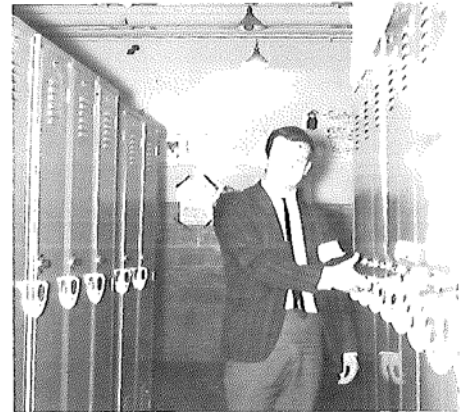

At the end of the season, the Raiders held down sole possession of fifth place. Their 2-7 record is not a true indication of the type of team this was. Their defense led by tackle Jim Leverone was one of the strongest; yet, they were among the leaders in the fewest points allowed category. Its offense spirited by the play of center Terry Duggan and backs Bob Howe and Devin Ryan, was one of the strongest and most deceptive seen this year.

I wonder whether this is included in the 50€?

Maybe there is one in my locker?

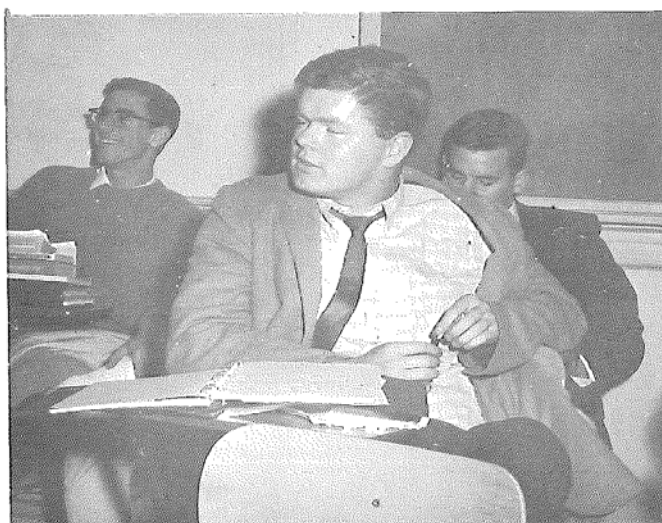

Did you have a good time last night?

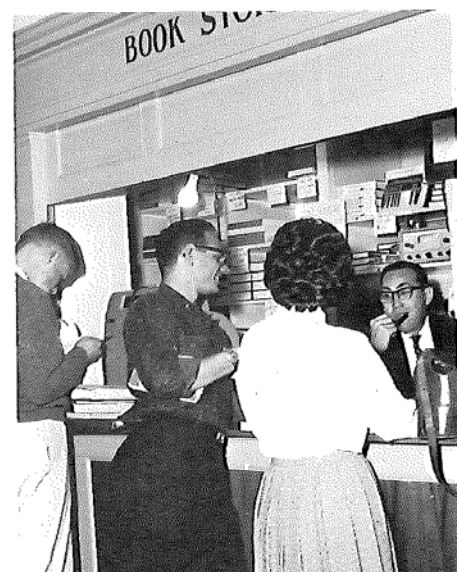

Hey, what's the big rush???

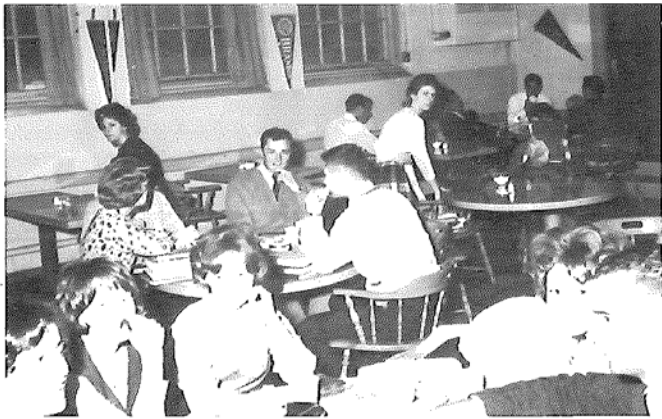

Smile Pat, you're on Candid Camera.

ZZZZZZZ . . . Were you talking to me Sir???

Who are you trying to finagle???

There's nothing like a school lunch.

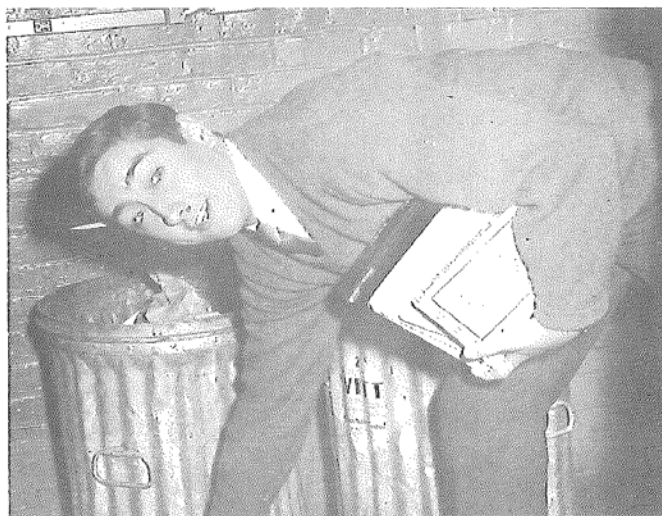

Should a gentleman offer a lady a Tipparillo?

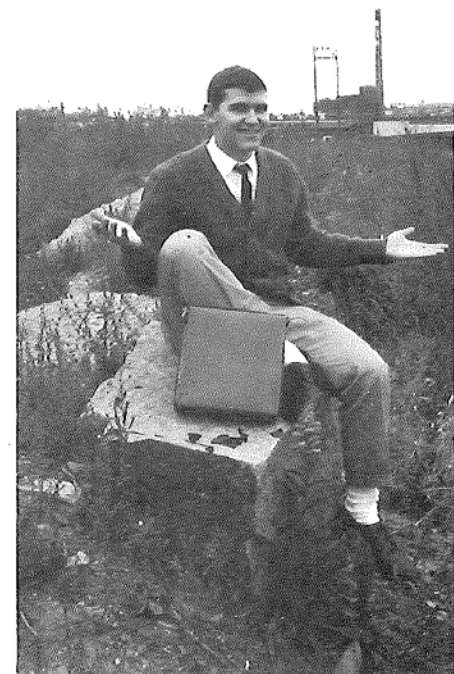

I can't stand this much longer!

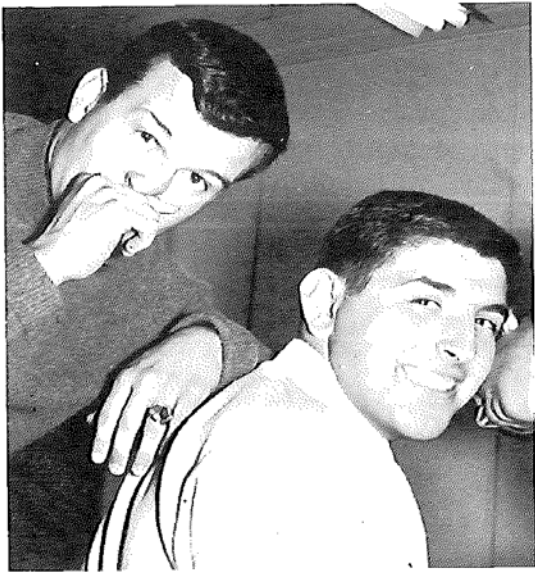

Is this how you do your studying???

Nothing like a quick lunch.

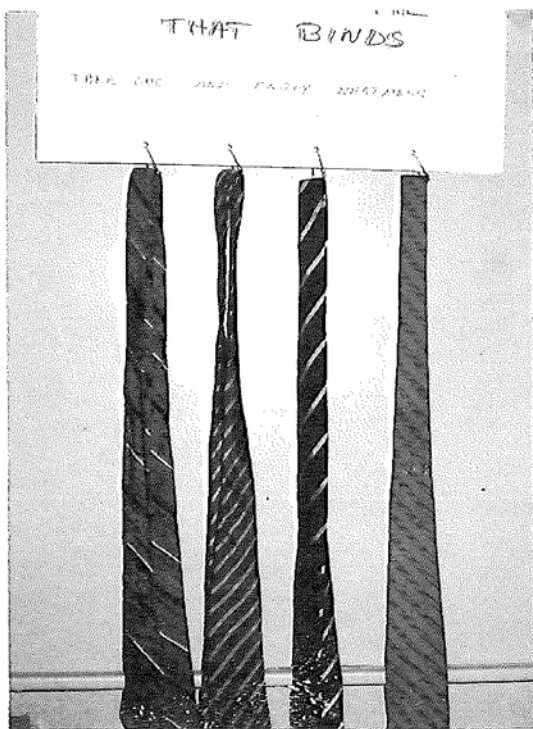

But this is where they told me the new school was!!!

That will teach you to leave your handkerchief at home!

Right this way folks.

I'm sure you won't forget your tie the next time.

O.K., I was wrong.

Has anyone seen my brother "Mr. Smith"

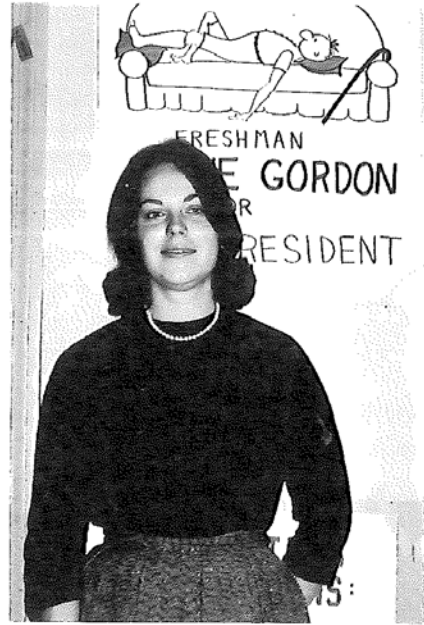

He never concentrated on me like this.

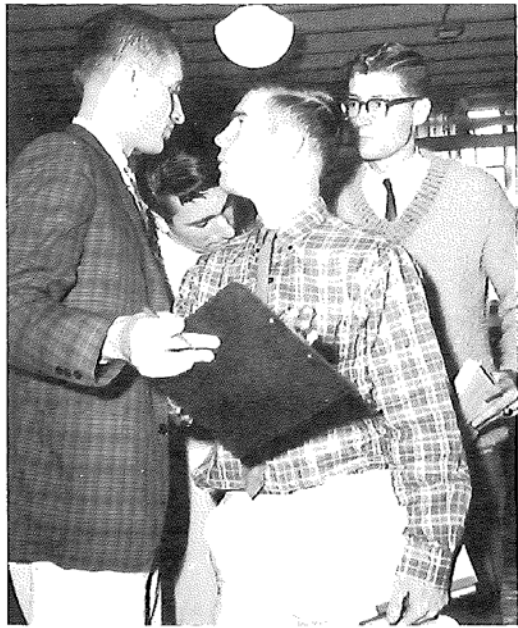

You be the guinea pig not me.

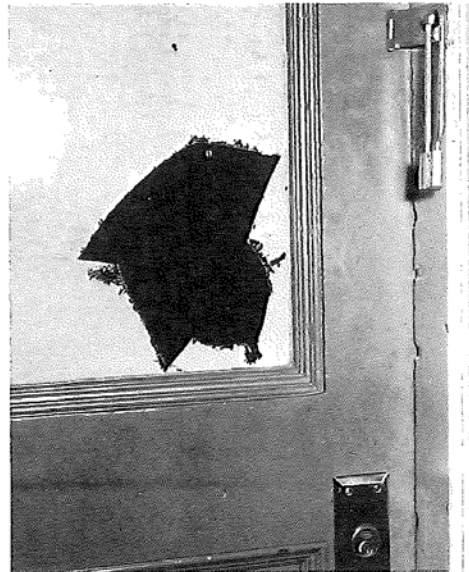

Vote our way or else!!!

Do you think anyone suspects?

I wouldn't do that if I were you.

Not again! This could get to be a pain.

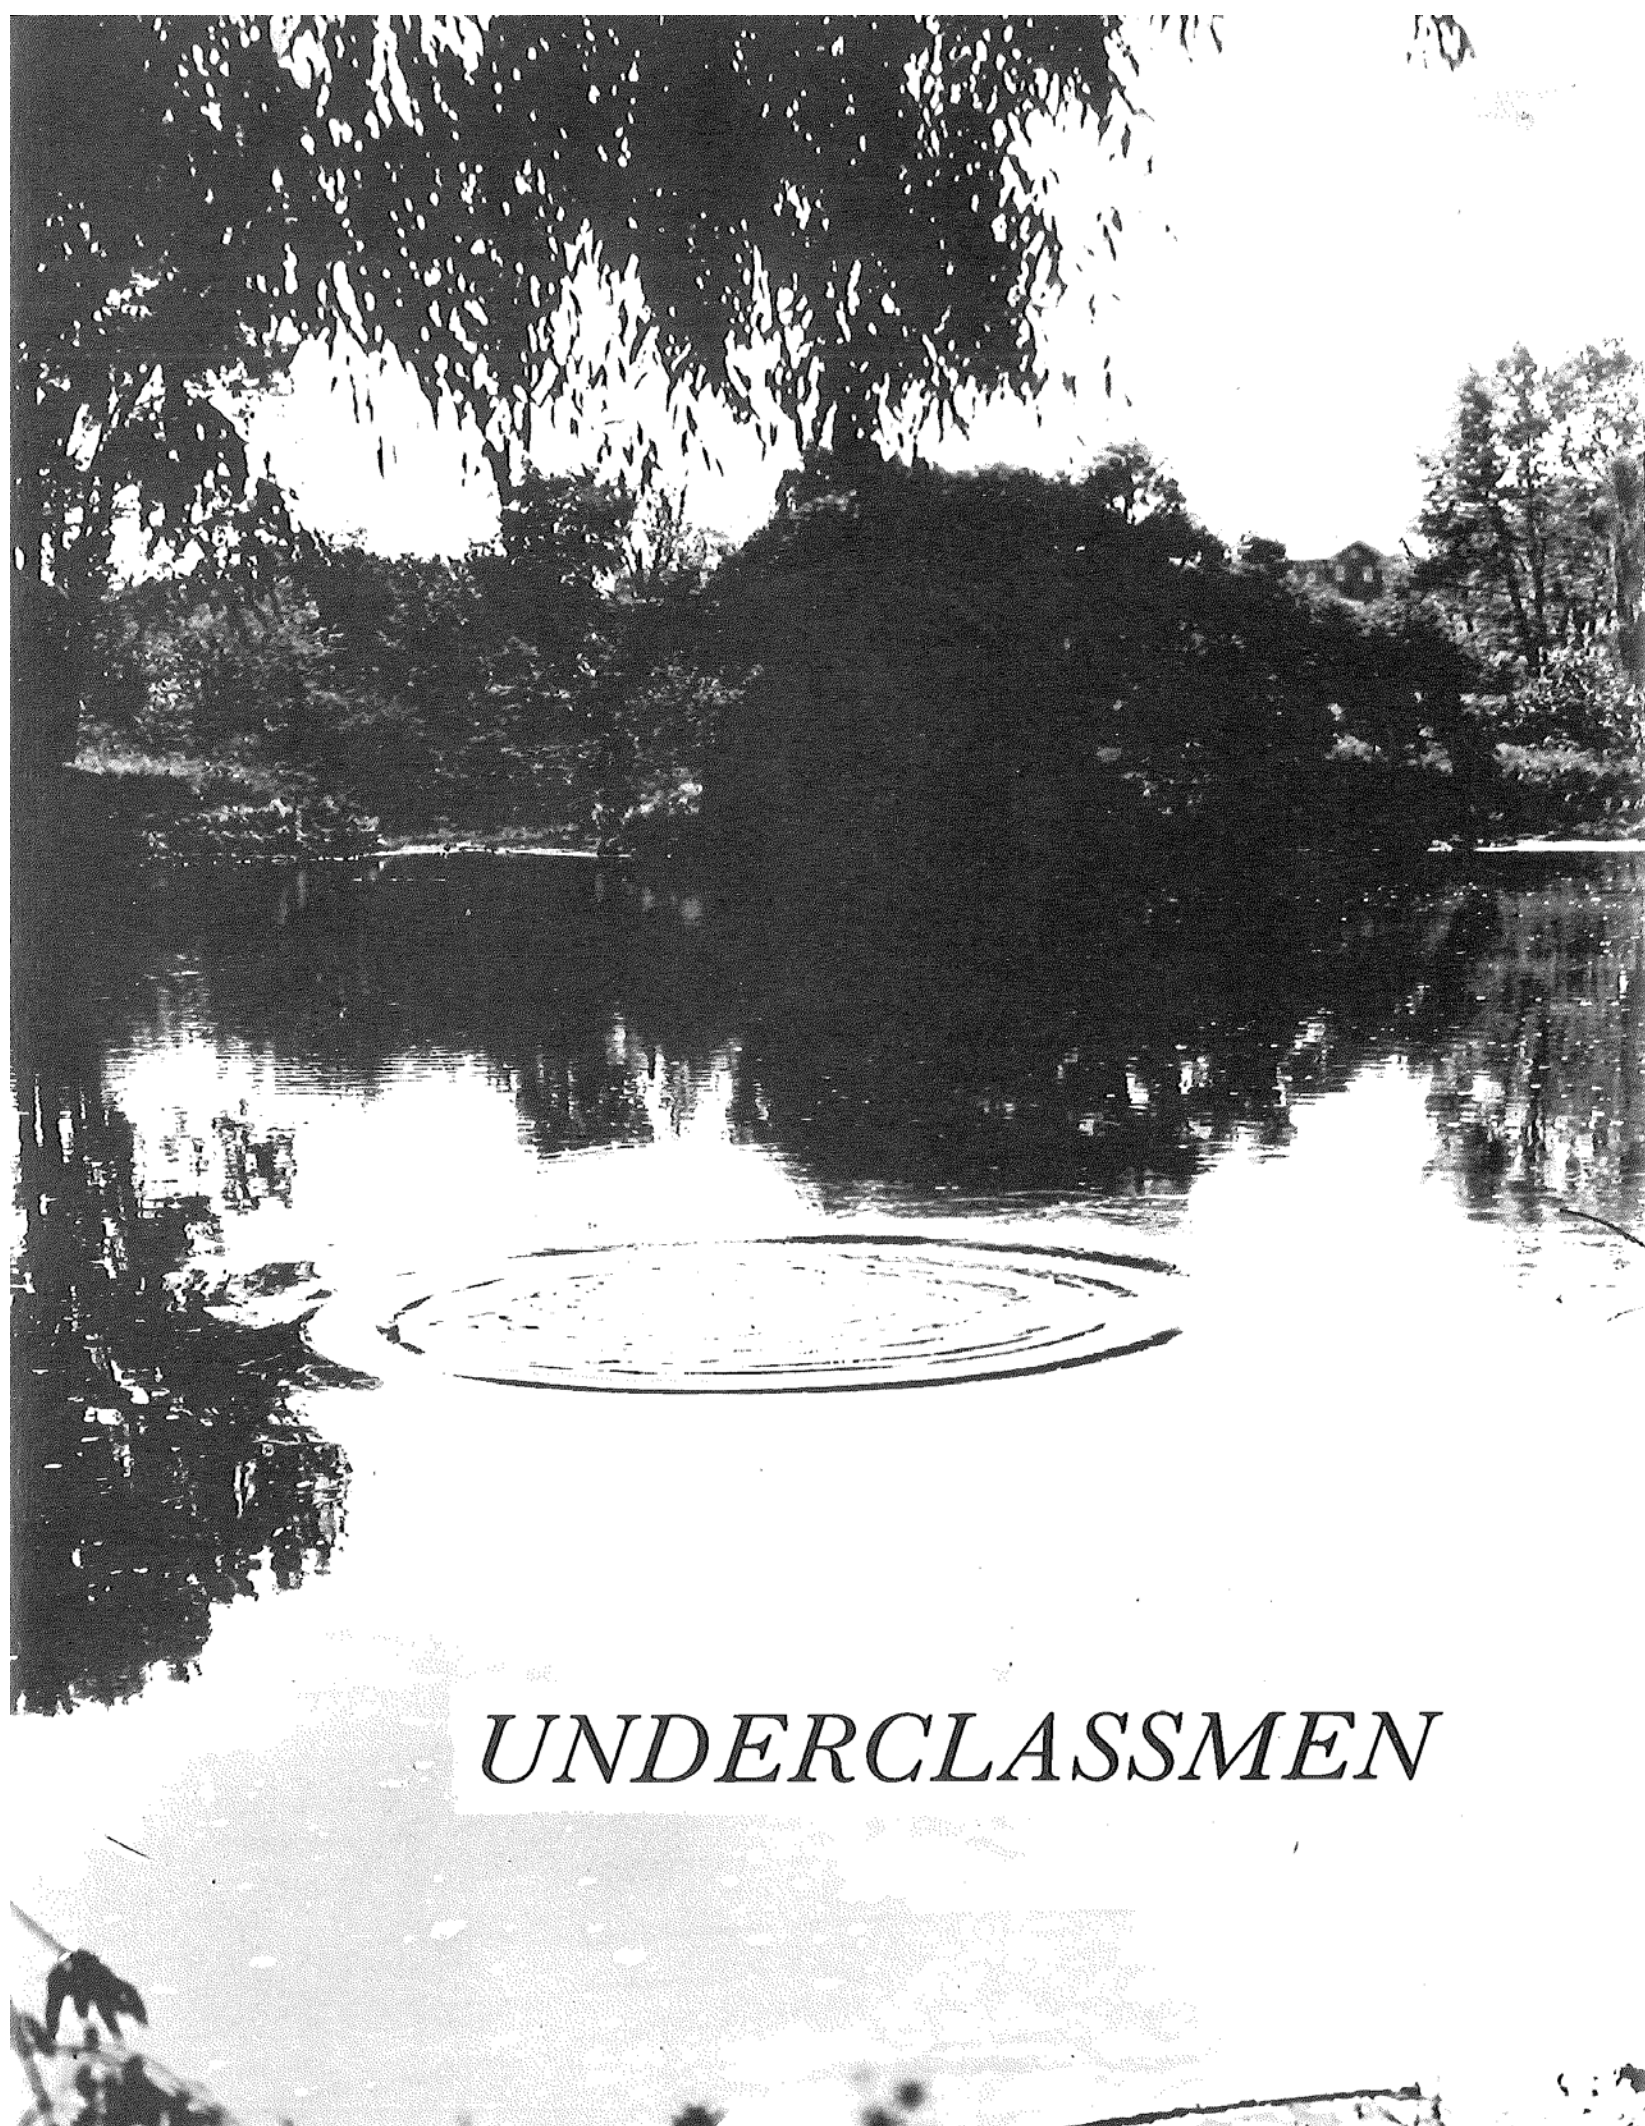

Are you sure your working on the yearbook?

I'll have my cake and eat it too.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Student Government Association

27 GARRISON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02116

May 24, 1965

To The Graduating Class of 1966:

Having now completed your first year of college at MBCC, you are undoubtedly aware of the value of an education. You should also realize that a college education doesn't simply mean book learning and classroom instruction but encompasses character building and the unique art of working with and understanding your fellow man. As you continue the full scope of this education, you will acquire a deeper and more significant meaning. In conjunction with the faculty, we have endeavored to mold you into useful and intelligent citizens; people who will contribute to society and be happy and content in it.

Through our Student Government, we have offered you an opportunity to learn and experience methods of student leadership which we hope you will carry with you next year and into the adult world. Mass Bay is still a very young college and many problems remain to be solved. We hope that you will use the knowledge acquired in the past year to effectively meet and dispose of whatever difficulty may confront our college. We are handing you the mandate of leadership as our predecessors have done. "Stand on our shoulders and reach higher."

Sincerely

SEE STUDENTS

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Massachusetts Bay Community College
27 Garrison Street, Boston 02116

May 24, 1965

TELEPHONE CONGRESS 2-11

To The Student Body:

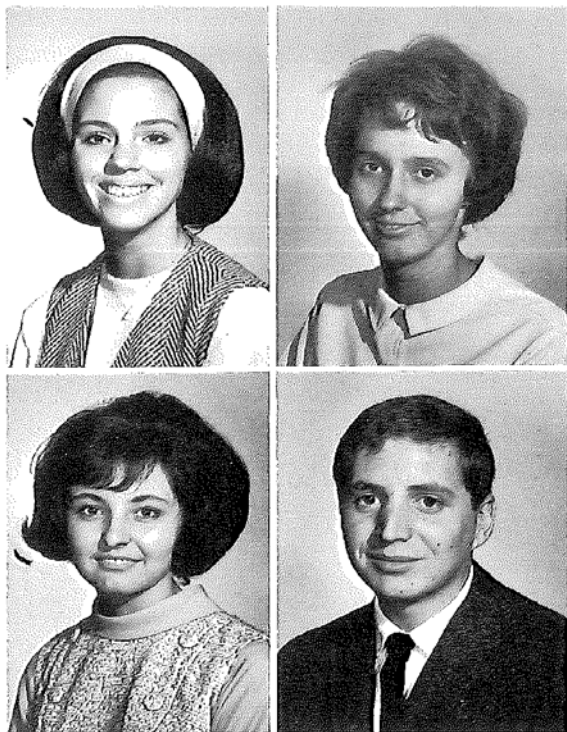

In September 1961, the very first class entered Massachusetts Bay Community College with a brand new administration, faculty and staff. These people were to help pioneer a new and unique kind of College. Our College has dared to be different in many respects and has quickly established a reputation for excellence along with the development of new and vital areas. The results of one of our proudest innovations, namely our SEE Program, follow in this tradition.

In early 1964, the College was faced with the prospect of rejecting outright a large number of applicants who appeared to have a good chance to benefit from a college education. The reason was simply a lack of space. Recognizing its obligation to the Community to devote its full energy and resources in providing educational opportunities for the area it serves, the College turned its attention to various ways of beating the "lack-of-seats" problem. A plan was devised whereby a certain number of applicants could be accepted as Degree Candidates by beginning their course work in the Summer Session and following it with one semester in the Evening Division. Owing to the normal rate of withdrawals and dismissals after the first semester in the Day School, a sufficient number of spaces could be assured so that students under this plan could begin their second semester of their freshmen year in February and proceed normally to graduation with their class in the Day Division. Because the Summer and Evening Divisions represented the first steps for this group, the program was given the name of "Summer-Evening Entrance" or SEE program.

And so, the College welcomes a new group of pioneers, the SEE students entering the Day Division. They have passed their first big test and they can be sure of a warm welcome from the entire family of Massachusetts Bay Community College.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth W. Hagerstrom
