

Crimson Robe of Innocent Blood

Kathleen Russell Ferrell

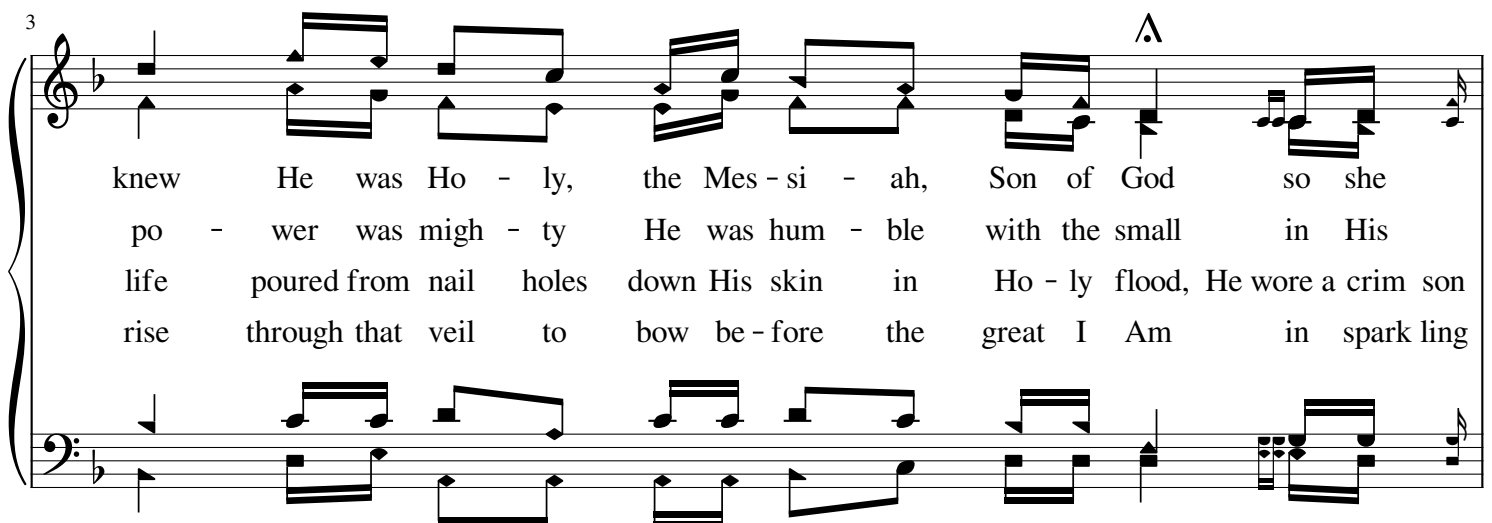

Tenderly

1. The first born of the world came to earth as a babe swad-dled
2. Crowds sur round - ed Christ Je - sus as he told of God's love. E - ven 3. But they stripped Him and beat Him and scourged out His flesh. When they
4. So the Ho - li - est price was then paid for my sin. And I've tight by His mo - ther to pro - tect and keep Him safe. For she touch - ing His gar - ment healed the wounds they suf - fered from. Though His led him to slaugh - ter not a word did He pro - test. As His washed in that sa - cri - fice and soon I'll be with Him. I will knew He was Ho - ly, the Mes - si - ah, Son of God so she po - wer was migh - ty He was hum - ble with the small in His life poured from nail holes down His skin in Ho - ly flood, He wore a crim son rise through that veil to bow be - fore the great I Am in spark ling wrapped Him in robes made of love. robe as the ser - vant of all.

2

3

robe made of in - no - cent blood. robes washed in blood of the Lamb.