

Hankerin' for a chuckwagon supper, a good show, and a close-up look at some of New Mexico's rescued wild animals? If so, this is the event for you!! Come join members of the New Mexico Section for a "good ole time" on

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28TH

WE WILL MEET NEAR TRAMWAY & INDIAN SCHOOL AT 4:00PM FOR THE SHORT DRIVE TO EDGEWOOD. THERE WILL BE TIME TO MEET THE ANIMALS PRIOR TO THE DINNER & SHOW AT 6:00PM. (Specific details forthcoming)

Suppers include a traditional barbecue of brisket and chicken (vegetarian option available), with Wildlife West's unique falcon show and live music by Watermelon Mountain Jug Band. The show will take place, rain or shine, in the all-weather amphitheater.
