

The Five Natural Elements are
Water, Wood, Fire, Earth, and Metal

	Water	Wood	Fire	Earth	Metal
Element	Fountains; aquariums; bowl of water	Wood items or furnishings; Trees, plants, flowers	Fire, candles, fireplace, bright lights, sunlight	Soil, rocks, primitive stone and quartz, granite, marble	Brass, bronze, silver, etc.
Colors	Black, blue	Green	Red, purple, magenta, reddish orange	Earth tones (sandy to peat moss), yellow	White, off-white, gold, silver, gray, pastels
Shapes	Freeform, flowing; paisley; wavy patterns	Vertical, columns; vertical blinds, striped wallpaper	Triangle, pyramid, star shape, conical shapes	Square, rectangle, horizontal lines	Round, oval, circular shapes
Materials	Glass, mirror	Bamboo, Cotton, linen, burlap, plant-based fabrics	Animal prints, fur, leather	Ceramics, terracotta, clay objects, brick and tile	Gemstones, polished stone and marble
Others	Sinks & toilets	Books	Zig zag patterns	Low, wide furniture	Arches and domes
Images	Water landscapes	Forest, flower landscapes	People, animals, fire, sun and star artwork	Open landscapes, deserts, mountains	Art with metallic, gold or silver leaf finishes