

Raise the Roof: Adverbs

Check out the Raise the Roof video on the Hot Ticket channel.

An adverb is a word that adds to the meaning of and describes a verb or adjective.

Example:

McPufferson quickly ran over to Zapp to tell him some new facts about ants.

How did McPufferson run? He ran quickly.

Quickly is the adverb; it describes the verb, run.

Adverbs

gently	quickly	excitedly	bravely	eagerly	slowly
perfectly	safely	promptly	rapidly	kindly	quietly	loudly

Add an adverb from the bank to each sentence to make it more descriptive.

After you add an adverb, act out the sentence.

1. _____ bump the volleyballs!
2. _____ squish the bugs!
3. _____ raise the roof!
4. _____ push the chair!
5. _____ chop the pickles!
6. _____ swat the bees!
7. _____ roll away the meatballs!
8. _____ clear away the smoke!