Grains closed higher today. Funds were net buyers of 5k corn contracts and 3k wheat contracts and even soybean contracts.

Wheat futures provided upside leadership in grain today with corn following higher. Corn prices were also supported by a USDA daily flash corn sale of 612K MT to China. Fears also seemed to ease on the recent bank failures with the DOW showing positive action today.

Russia is seeking only a 60-day renewal of the Black Sea grain deal saying the deal must address normalizing Russian exports. Russia blames sanctions on payments, logistics, and insurance for creating barriers to its agricultural exports. The current deal is set to expire later this week. Ukraine says it will not be ready to sign a 60-day deal and says the deal requires a 120-day renewal. The uncertain resolution appears to be putting some risk premium into the wheat and corn market.

CPI numbers this morning showed inflation increased 0.4% in February and up 6% year on year.
