Managing Agriculture Risk!
February 19, 2010
Alfalfa County Exhibit Building
Alfalfa County Fairgrounds
Cherokee, OK

Guest Speaker
Dr. Rodney Jones OSU Area
Extension Ag Economics Specialist.

Markets/ Tools Agriculture Contracting Financials Risk Record Keeping
Are just some of the topics.

You ask for a marketing education program.
We asked the OSU Extension for their help and now we have the first meeting scheduled for the 19th of February.
Mark your calendar and attend.
The program will be tailored to the participants interest. It will be your input that guides the instructors in choosing topics for future seminars.

I will see you there.

The Burlington Coop will be closed on Saturday, February the 27th 2010 for year end inventory.

C-store will open mid morning after we have inventoried.

We are working on the summer diesel contract pricing.

We will be notifying everyone that indicated they would like to contract summer diesel, by the end of the month with program details.
