Due to recent enhancements in our accounting software, you can now receive your statements electronically. With an emailed statement, there's no more waiting on the mail or searching through your file to find it. With a simple 'save' you can keep them neatly stored on your hard drive. Our e-statements look exactly like your mailed statement. If you would like this convenience please provide us with the following information:

Customer Name _____

Account # (if known) _____ Phone #: _____

Email Address: _____

Address _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

☐ Electronic statements only

☐ Electronic statements and paper statements

We can also provide to you your invoices, delivery tickets, bookings, blend tickets, grain settlements. If interested in any of these please circle those you would like to receive electronically.
