Good Morning!!

Corn unchanged beans up 2 cents at the break. US government enters 6th day of shutdown today. A farm aid package is expected to be announced this week potentially tomorrow. $10 billion dollar aid package focusing on soybeans with a per bushel payment structure for farmers. Favorable weather in South America soybean planting rolling along progress ahead of multi-year averages. 7 day weather models remain the same as we saw last week quarter inch excepted locally. We will see our best chances overnight and tomorrow morning.
