

EUREKA      EL PASO      ROANOKE      MINIER      EVANS      EMDEN      COOPER      ARMINGTON      BENSON

June 30th , 2025

Happy Monday!

Corn down, beans up a bit at the morning break. Kicking off the week with a number of reports. Today’s reports include the Grain Stocks and Planted Acreage report (11am), export inspections (10am), and crop progress (3pm). Trade estimates expecting 95.4 million corn acres and 83.7 million acres of soybeans. Weather models showing a brief break in the heat wave as we settle in the low 90's and upper 80's for highs for the work week. We heat back up for more extreme heat in the 5-10 outlook. 7 day precip. maps look a little dry for our area at the moment. We will see what the day brings!!

USDA June 1 Stocks and Acreage 06/30/25
		Jun 30 Report	June 30, '24	Change	Estimates
					Low	Avg.	High
All Wheat
(billion bushels)	June 1 Stocks	0.851	0.702	0.149	0.805	0.836	0.852
Corn
(billion bushels)	June 1 Stocks	4.644	4.993	-0.349	4.473	4.641	4.798
Soybeans
(billion bushels)	June 1 Stocks	1.008	0.970	0.038	0.950	0.980	1.130
Acreage 2025/2026			March Intent
	Wheat Acres	45.48	45.350	0.128	45.000	45.438	46.000
	Corn Acres	95.20	95.326	-0.123	93.750	95.350	96.800
	Soybean Acres	83.38	83.495	-0.115	82.500	83.655	85.300
	Cotton Acres	10.12	9.867	0.253	8.800	9.735	9.985

-GH