Happy Monday!

I hope everyone had a great 4th of July surrounded by good friends and family. The market much like the 4th of July burn you got is Red this morning. Corn down around a dozen and beans down about 20 cents. Potential trade deals being speculated were not announced over the weekend as Trump made an appearance in Iowa. Favorable forecast through the corn belt this week and in the extended. Export flash of some new and old corn to Mexico this morning.
