

Allan Wegner Director Profile

Allan Wegner, Onaga, was elected in 2008 to his third term as a cooperative board member.

FARMING OPERATION: My farming operation consists of corn, soybeans, wheat, and a cow/calf operation. Personal interests include my wife Melissa, daughter Grace Marie and younger son Isaac. I enjoy Royals baseball, and gardening with my family.

NUMBER OF YEARS AS COOP DIRECTOR: 7 years

WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNED AS A DIRECTOR: Financing, and how important the right people are. I have learned there are times when there just is not an easy answer to problems.

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO TELL THE MEMBERS ABOUT THE COOPERATIVE: We are striving to be a progressive organization while improving facilities and equipment. Continuing to work at maintaining many of our services while being profitable and competitive.

WHAT IS THE MOST DIFFICULT PART ABOUT BEING A DIRECTOR: Striking the right balance between due diligence and timeliness. The business environment is changing so rapidly and we have a limited amount of capital.

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO CHANGE WITHIN YOUR COOPERATIVE: I would like for our cooperative keep in step with the changing demands of our members. Another goal would be to revolve equity in our organization so to better reflect present ownership of the company with business volume.
