

General view from SW: main workshops and store houses; 7 individual rooms

View from NW: main entrance (centre); access to workshops (left); roof (right)

Main entrance opens to a small, open space (left) and a domed space (right) before courtyard

Exterior view of the kitchen yard (foreground, and stairs (centre); main dome of reception room

Domed gallery on the east side of the courtyard. The relief work is the designer's name.

Interior courtyard; dining and living units (left); bathrooms (right).

SE corner of the courtyard; patio in background

Balat Excavation Centre, Balat, Dakhla Oasis, Egypt

Interior view of the main workshops (north wing); mezzanine provides extra work space.

Dining corner in main workshop (north wing), prior to construction of second phase:

Main dome over the reception entrance with trumpet arches.

Interior view of the library corner in living/dining unit (west wing).

The main workshops (north wing) under construction.

Arch construction in adobe bricks utilising a metal formwork.

Detail of the arches before erection of domes.

North wing under construction; plastering.