Ice Breaker

What is one unique or odd talent that you have?

---

Discuss 1

- On a scale of 1-10 how tight are your fists in regard to your finances? In what areas are they the tightest? (Income, generosity, possessions, etc.)
- How might a tight fist mentality affect your relationship with others?
- Ashley talked about how “God owns everything you have.” How would viewing your money/possessions that way impact a person’s life? How has it impacted yours?

Discuss 2

- Share a time when you trusted God in a way that scared you and God provided.

- Ashley mentioned that the typical response many people have when it comes to tithing is that “I’ll TIP God”. How can thinking this way impact our relationship with God?

Discuss 3

- Share a time when someone was radically generous with you and how that affected you.
- Read Matthew 6:25-27 & Luke 6:38. For many the idea of being radically generous and not having enough can be intimidating. What do these two passages teach us about God and generosity?
- What are some ways you can be radically generous in your world?

Take Away

Where have you been challenged the most during this series? What step do you plan to take?

---

Coach Tip

Here are a few suggestions to foster great conversation and responses during your group discussion:

Here are a few ways to make your group more social:

1. Plan a game night.
2. Invite each family individually over to your house for dinner.
3. Serve together in your neighborhood, campus, or city.
4. Or, plan a men’s night and have the wives watch the kids, and the next week switch.

No matter what you do, be intentional about making your group more social so everyone feels connected in your group.
