

You Speak

Written by Donna Gillespie © CCV Music

Verse 1

Word became light in the beginning
When Your voice called out in stillness
And the world was dark and void

The sound of hopelessness retreating
As Your whisper fills creation
Telling wonders of Your love

Pre Chorus

You speak and there is healing
You speak and dead bones rise
You speak and it moves mountains
You speak and there is life

Chorus

Oh, You set the world in motion
Oh, You taught the stars to shine
Oh, displaying all Your goodness
You speak and there is life
You speak and I'm alive

Verse 2

A love beyond my understanding
But I know You by Your promise
You are strong and You are kind

With every fiber of my being
God, I know that You are with me
Like You've been for all of time

Bridge

Your Word is truth
Your Word is light
Your Word is hope
And Your Word is life
