Verse 1

                    Em                    C
We found a new way of living
                    G                    Bm
To set our hearts on the things above
                    Em                    C
We trade the way we were thinking
                    G                    D
To put our hope in the risen One

Pre Chorus

D                                    Em                    C
Turning away from all of the world and its promises

We're running to You

Chorus 1

                    Em                    C
Living for the hope of heaven
                    G                    Bm
We won't settle for where we've been before
                    Em                    C
We're living for the hope of heaven
                    G                    D
Following the truth, Running after You

We're living for the hope of heaven
