REMEMBRANCE OF BAPTISM — *Congregation responds with words in bold

All are invited to prepare a bowl with water for the remembrance of baptism.

When life sprung forth from the creating voice of God
it was sustained and surrounded by water.

The waters brought forth living creatures of every kind.

The garden that God provided for our first parents - made in God's image, was watered by rivers of life.

You lead us by still waters.

But water can overwhelm;

Wind and wave know no boundaries.
The storms of springtime can flood and destroy.

By your word you still the storm -
Wind and wave obey You.

Water can be a barrier to freedom;
your people trembled at the edge of the sea with the armies of Pharaoh closing in.

You opened a way through the water;
Your people crossed on dry land.

In the desert your people thirsted.
In a dry and weary wilderness our mouths are parched, we are dried up.

You provide water from the rock,
life for thirsty pilgrims.

In the waters of the Jordan Naaman found healing from leprous skin.
Our hands are raw from washing against the threat of an unseen virus.

By water you cleanse us and heal us.

Remind us, O God with each visit to the sink that you wash away the power of sin
by the promise of resurrection life.

We are your children by water and the Word.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism,
we are raised with him to new life
Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Bathe us in your forgiveness, grace and love.

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

All are invited to remember their baptism by dipping a finger in the water and tracing the sign of the cross on their own forehead - or on one another - with these or similar words:

We are children of God, washed in the water!

READING — 1 Peter 2:19-25

Doing the right things does not guarantee that one will not experience difficulties, hardships, rejection, or even suffering. Here Christ is presented as the model for our path of endurance and loyalty to God, particularly amid adversity.

A reading from 1 Peter.

<sup>19</sup>It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. <sup>20</sup>If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. <sup>21</sup>For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

<sup>23</sup>When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. <sup>24</sup>He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. <sup>25</sup>For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

SONG DURING PRAYER — It Is Well With My Soul - Sally Eppert, Piano

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER — *In Unison

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
