

Throughout the Weekend

Looking for a flexible, more socially distant event, you can do on your own? We have plenty of ideas of ways for you to be involved throughout the weekend. From collecting items for specific organizations, to praying for the community, to choosing your own activity, there is something for everyone.

God's Work Our Hands Prayer Team

Pray for those working throughout the weekend and for the agencies and ministries we are collaborating with. Prayer items and information will be provided.

(Great for families or those who would rather stay distant)

The Sharing Place

Throughout the weekend, collect items for The Sharing Place food pantry (a list of recent needs will be sent to you early in the week.) Please drop your items at the church (precautions will be set in place) between 12:00-1:00pm or 6:00-7:00pm on Sunday, Sept 13.

Choose Your Own Activity

Take some time and come up with your own activity for the weekend! See the list below for ideas. Please sign up so we can get you information about sharing what you've done the weekend of God's Work Our Hands.

Ideas:

- Lutheran World Relief health kits (go to lwr.org/personalcarekits for information)
- Pick up trash along the Whitewater River or at your favorite park
- Send personal notes to a local nursing home
- Send personal notes to your child's teacher and/or administrator (send the note to the school addressed to the individual.)
- Contact an organization you support and ask what items they could use donated
- Set up a prayer station in your neighborhood. Sit in your front yard and put up a sign asking for prayer requests. Solicit requests from those driving or walking by.
