

Parkway Heights' Sunday School classes offer adults an extraordinary opportunity to experience Christian discipleship as they share their lives and understanding of God's love in a small group setting.

Curriculum varies with each class and may include Cokesbury Bible studies, current popular books or topical studies. We invite you to visit all classes to discover the group through which God will nurture your spirit.

Classes meet from 9:40 a.m.-10:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

BECOMERS

Room 316 | Teacher: Warren Hood

Becomers is a facilitator-led class that encourages open discussion. Class is mainly couples and singles around age 60+. The class studies Scripture-based contemporary literature.

COLLEGE

Room 240 | Teacher: Michelle Van Vleet

This casual class for college-age and graduate students meets for fellowship and faith development. The class is new in fall 2023, and we hope to grow!

DISCIPLE

Room 314 | Teachers: Rotating

Disciple class is committed to Bible study in a discussion format, with all points of view freely expressed. The class is primarily comprised of married couples, married persons who attend without their spouses and singles. A wide range of ages is represented.

FIDELIS

Room 306-A

Teachers: Oliver Brown & Jim Robertson

Older men and women study the Adult Bible Studies, Uniform Series in this class. Stimulating class discussion and a loving, supportive fellowship help members learn, grow and become better disciples of Christ.

GPS

Room 302-B

Teacher: Vicki Kibodeaux

The name GPS is indicative of how Christ leads our faith journey. In this class, you'll enjoy lively discussions on contemporary issues from a Biblical perspective. Diversity of membership contributes to the spiritual and intellectual growth experienced through this time together.

INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY

Room 303

Teacher: Susan Eaton

Inductive Bible study is a three-step process you can bring to any text in the Bible to help you understand, interpret and apply what you're reading. All you need is your Bible, a notebook or journal and a pen. Everyone is welcome to participate!

JESUS, ETC.

Room 305-B

Teachers: Rotating

This diverse, active group of couples (mostly parents but all are welcome) engages in discussions of select materials, video lessons and Scripture. The class often gathers for social events together, including an annual camping trip.

KEITH KEETON CLASS

Fireside Room | Teacher: Keith Keeton

Everyone is invited to try out this new class! Possible studies will be discussed. This class will also perform service projects for the church once a month.

NEW DYNAMICS

Room 317 | Teacher: Clint Gill

All ages are invited to participate in the New Dynamics class. In this class, you'll enjoy Biblical and topical studies written by progressive, contemporary writers.

SEEKERS

Room 315

Teachers: Bettie Ross

The Seekers class focuses on topical/book studies related to Christian discipleship. Choice of study emerges from the interests of the cross-generational membership.

YOUNG ADULTS

Room 305-A

Teachers: Mary & David Godbold

This lively group of young adults takes on different topics of study, including reading through the entire Bible. The class also explores issues of faith relevant to life issues. All are welcome to join.
