February Blood Drive: Feb. 16

Parkway Heights will host our next blood drive on Sunday, Feb. 16. To support both blood centers in our area, the fall blood drive was hosted by the Blood Center, and this drive will be hosted by Vitalant. We need YOU to be a hero and donate. New Bible Study Opportunities

Parkway Heights will offer several Bible studies over the next couple months. The first two classes will be led by Keith Keeton and Randy Pope. We hope you will take advantage of these opportunities for growth!

~ ONE BOOK - SUNDAY, JAN. 26 & FEB. 2 / 5:30 P.M. / ROOM 316

The Bible is one book, right? Then why can its organization and tone be so varied and different? It can all get very confusing. If you've ever wondered how the Bible is organized and what genres are included, this brief, two-week class is for you! Keith Keeton will guide us in looking at the structure of the Bible, how it came into being and what that structure can teach us about the message. Interested? Sign up today!

~ "LIVING WITH PURPOSE IN A POLARIZING WORLD" - SUNDAYS FOR EIGHT WEEKS STARTING FEB. 2 / 5:30 P.M. / ROOM 305

We live in an increasingly polarized world. Some Christians feel under siege; and some common reactions include fitting in, withdrawing, fear, anger or seeking power. However, none of these align with the words of Micah (seek justice, love mercy, walk humbly); Jeremiah (seek the good of the city) or Jesus (let your light shine before others).

Join Randy Pope, co-author of "Living with Purpose in a Polarizing World," to explore practical takeaways and biblical lessons for thriving today. Through the lives of 12 biblical characters, you'll uncover lessons on resilience, joy and faith. If you'd like to participate in this study, sign up in today's bulletin or email susaneaton@parkwayheights.org for info.
