FROM OUR PASTOR

This October we will anticipate adding an 8:15 am worship service on Sundays. Because our musicians will be preparing for the 10:00 am worship in the sanctuary, the 8:30 am service will be a 35-minute service in the music room adjacent to our 'front' lawn.

For clarity of communication within our staff, we are calling the 8:15 am service "Re:Fresh".*The idea is this will be an early morning 'spiritual awakening' service without music/singing. The order of service will include: a Threshold Moment, Prayer of Address, Prayer of Confession, Silent Prayer, the Lord's Prayer, an Affirmation of Faith, Scripture Reading, Message, Prayer of St. Francis, and Invitation to Offering, and Benediction. (There will be communion on the 1st Sunday of the month.)

Mark your calendars if you would like to take part in this early worship opportunity.

Good News. Great Joy. All People.

*As we are blending both modern and traditional worship music in the 10:00 am service, I have begun to think of that as our "Re:Mix" service.

WHAT THE BIBLE IS (AND ISN'T):

AN INTERVIEW SERIES

Both those 'inside' and 'outside' the church are prone to understand (and misunderstand) the Bible in a variety of ways. Because the Bible is such a central text in history and across many cultures, people who identify with any faith tradition, or none, can benefit from deepening their knowledge about what various faith traditions understand and claim the Bible to be.

St. Paul's has invited Dr. Michael Lodahl, Professor of Theology and World Religions at Pt. Loma Nazarene University, to sit down for a 5-week interview series to explore "What the Bible Is (And Isn't)." An academic seminar series, community participants, who identify with any faith tradition, or none, are welcome to attend.

Each evening will include two 20-25 minute interviews exploring questions like, "How did the earliest Christians understand the Bible?", "What do the words of scripture claim about themselves?", "What did Martin Luther mean by 'sola scriptura'?", etc.

These interviews will be in the sanctuary Sunday evenings from 5:30-7:00pm, September 19th through October 17th. Register to attend in-person. (The interviews will also be recorded and released on our podcast.)
