The Vision
By Dan Hefner

Are You Convinced?

“Who you believe will determine what you believe and what you believe will determine how you live.”

I’ve put this saying at the bottom of the handouts for my current class in the study of Paul’s letter to the Colossian Church.

Have you ever stopped to consider just how many individual things you’ve been convinced to believe? Brushing your teeth for dental health? Eating healthy foods or that eating healthy foods won’t matter? The value of hard work? The value of a good tool, good friends, or a Savior?

Now answer this: Who’s greater, the one who is convinced or the one who persuaded the listener?

God is the origin of Truth. He spoke things into being so he “knows that he knows,” and is then described as The Faithful One. He then passes on the Truth through faithful messengers. It then becomes Scripture so that we may become convinced as the Spirit moves. Then, and only then, we become “the faithful in Christ Jesus.”

So, who is greater, the convinced or the Convincer?

I’m convinced that Jesus Christ is the Anointed Messiah, my Redeemer, and there is salvation in no other name, and by no other means. He IS great and we can experience the great blessings he bestows only as we seek him.

----------------------------

According to Hebrews 11:6 God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. I am “greedy” for the blessings God will bestow as I seek Him. Not monetary rewards but the spiritual blessings and rewards mentioned by New Testament writers, but here’s an example of the blessings of faith from the Old Testament: Moses sent twelve spies into the Promised Land to scout. Ten returned terrified.

They saw abundance but said the inhabitants were “too strong for them.” Joshua and Caleb saw an abundance to possess, for God was with them and had promised it to them. They were convinced.

Forty-five years later Caleb went to Joshua with a request. Israel had taken possession of the land yet not all the sectors were under their ownership. There was Hebron, a stronghold still held by a race of giant men. Caleb said to Joshua, “Give me that mountain” and Joshua complied.

Global Ministries Team: Mission Spotlight

July, Joe & Ladaere Milioni

Joe and Ladaere Milioni are excited about the potential for impacting the world through their service with the Center for Intercultural Training. While Ladaere teaches future missionary kids about transitioning to another culture, Joe directs the Global branch for CIT. This has been an encouraging time for CIT Global. After several years of anticipation, in March they launched the missionary training center in Cuba. The first training had 25 future missionaries that are planning to head to many unreached areas of the world. Joe also continues to work with the Church planting team in Cuba. The number of church planters trained is now well passed 2000. Please pray for the continued training and that God would use the future missionaries in a powerful way. In addition to Cuba Joe is involved in developing future missionaries in Costa Rica, Panama, SE Asia and other locations. In the next few months CIT Global will launch its first on-line course designed for continuing training for missionaries who have recently arrived on the field. Joe and Ladaere are convinced that the best way to complete the Great Commission and spread the Gospel to the unreached is to mobilize the whole church.

August, Matt & Becky Kooi
Serving in Tijuana, Mexico

Just for a moment it caught my eye. Between the people in front of me waiting to receive fresh vegetables at our Spectrum outreach, I could see a young man sitting at a table in the background. His hair was unkept and he had an inordinate amount of tattoos and piercings.

What brought him there that day I don’t know. But there he sat with his head bowed and his eyes closed. A church member was praying for him. His hand was on the young man’s shoulder in the heat of the Mexican sun, he was bringing his needs before God in prayer. A connection was being made. A young man coming into the presence of God with the help of a person from a church in his community.

Why did this jump out to me? There was not a single Spectrum person in the scene. Just the church and a person in desperate need of an encounter with God. This is the vision for the role Spectrum can serve in helping the Mexican church grow, while the church impacts local communities. Spectrum is the conduit. We draw the crowds. We’ve been doing it for years. We show God’s love no strings attached through providing healthy food, a change of clothes, games for kids or help with medical needs. We share the Gospel and earn trust through being there for people when they need it most.

But to move beyond just the immediate physical needs, true discipleship happens in the church. That’s why I believe it’s so important to invite the church to come out to our outreach and meet and pray for people in their own community. For lives and families to truly be transformed, it happens in the context of a body of believers. That’s where it happened for Becky, my kids, and I on the corner of Lockwood and Sanford!

After five years of serving here in Tijuana, we’re seeing more and more scenes like this unfold in our neighborhoods. God has been faithful to lead us through many tried and failed attempts. He’s brought us into relationships with really good Mexican churches who want to reach the people in their communities but just don’t have the resources to draw people like we can. Now with His leading and the prayers and support from good churches like Lockwood, we’re seeing the vision transpire. All glory to Him! Thank you Lockwood for all your great love and faithful prayers for us!
Israel owned but had not taken possession of all the territory. Caleb was a man of faith and action so, at 85, he took Hebron as his inheritance and drove the giants out. Caleb was convinced. He was neither arrogant nor greedy, but he wanted whatever God promised and wasn’t afraid to ask.

Are you convinced? Here and now, God has things that are part of our promised inheritance. Are you seeking them and more importantly, Him?

Paul prayed that the believers at Colossae would possess these manifestations of the Spirit’s Power: great endurance, patience, joy, and gratitude. If you’re looking for someone powerful in the Spirit, look for those four things. You’ll see someone who is faithful and walking in their inheritance.

“Who you believe will determine what you believe and what you believe will determine how you live.”

From the Administrative Board

Again, revisions to the LCC constitution have been finalized by the AB and now await congregational approval. Hopefully that will have been accomplished by the time you are reading this.

The AB has initiated two projects somewhat concurrently. One is the development of by-laws for the church. The second is review and revision of the development of policies and procedures for all the various missions, functions, and departments at LCC.

Additionally, the AB is giving consideration to numerous congregate initiatives including: the maintenance or replacement of existing landscaping, the construction of a playground, and contracting for another pictorial directory.

And finally, the AB is coordinating the activities and responsibilities of the church treasurer, the finance committee of the AB, and the Elders, Deacons, and Trustees so as to ensure that the fiscal health and wellbeing of LCC is being overseen and directed with integrity.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve and for your continued prayers of support.

In Him,

Jim Holb, chair

Highlighting Hymns

Softly and Tenderly
Andrea Mullins

“Softly and Tenderly Jesus is calling,
Calling for you and for me;
See, on the portals
He’s waiting and watching,
Watching for you and for me.

Come home, come home,
You who are weary, come home;
Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling,
Calling, oh sinner, come home.

“Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened,
and I will give you rest” Matthew 11:28

Though I am completely undeserving, God my Father calls me to Him, and waits for me!

I believe the nicest and sweetest days are not those on which anything very splendid or wonderful or exciting happens, but just those that bring simple little pleasures, following one another softly, like pearls slipping off a string.”
