

January 17, 2021

Greetings, I trust you are well. Thank you to those who helped last Sunday morning and evening! I appreciate both your service and faithfulness.

Your singing in the Loft makes a significant difference in our services. Choir, ~~we~~ I really need your help in the Loft for each service. You singing with me is much better than me singing alone—in our auditorium, on our livestreaming, and on the Baptist Temple Hour. On Sunday morning, we will load the Loft five minutes before each service—9:25, 10:45 & 5:55.

Orchestra, we will rehearse on Sunday afternoon at 5:30. We will look at music for this evening and the next couple of weeks. Thank you for your faithful service each time we meet!

This week, several of our people celebrate birthdays. Send them card, email, text, or give them a call and sing “Happy Birthday.”

Jean Malone (sop1) – Sun, Jan 17
XX

Don Roth (bass) – Thu, Jan 21
XX

Sandra Alban (sop1) – Mon, Jan 18
XX

Pat Johnson (alto) – Sat, Jan 23
XX

Most weekdays our daughter, Amy, calls her mom from the car while she is on her way home from school with the boys. Often, they are talking when I get in the door for supper. Yesterday Amy told me that Reece (younger of the two boys, 8 years old) had a question for me because something came up in his Bible class and that he wanted to call me.

About a year ago, we gave our son-in-law an echo dot as a gift. Among other things, it allows the boys to say, “Alexa, call Jim Symons.” So, as soon as they arrived home from school and got to the echo, my phone rang with Reece on the other end. “Mage, I have a question for you.”

Please understand I got over being afraid to say, “I don’t know,” a very long time ago; but also understand I didn’t want to say that to him—at least not yet. The question was, “When Jesus was at the wedding in Cana of Galilee, his mother Mary was with him. Where was Joseph? He’s not in the story.” Well, very thankful it wasn’t the question about where did Cain get his wife, I gave him the only answer I knew and that was, the Bible does not say anything about Joseph’s whereabouts at that time.

This morning, in my Bible reading I came across the passage in Deuteronomy 29:29, “The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.”

It is always good to wonder. It is in seeking that we find. It is best to do the things we know God wants us to do!

Thank you for your faithful service to the Lord in the ministry we share.

On the journey of 2021, trust God, serve faithfully, live with joy, and grow together in grace!

I look forward to seeing you on the Lord’s Day. It is a great joy serving as your minister of music. blessings!

January 17, 2021

Greetings, I trust you are well. Thank you to those who helped last Sunday morning and evening! I appreciate both your service and faithfulness.

Your singing in the Loft makes a significant difference in our services. Choir, ~~we~~ I really need your help in the Loft for each service. You singing with me is much better than me singing alone—in our auditorium, on our livestreaming, and on the Baptist Temple Hour. On Sunday morning, we will load the Loft five minutes before each service—9:25, 10:45 & 5:55.

Orchestra, we will rehearse on Sunday afternoon at 5:30. We will look at music for this evening and the next couple of weeks. Thank you for your faithful service each time we meet!

This week, several of our people celebrate birthdays. Send them card, email, text, or give them a call and sing “Happy Birthday.”

Jean Malone (sop1) – Sun, Jan 17
XX

Don Roth (bass) – Thu, Jan 21
XX

Sandra Alban (sop1) – Mon, Jan 18
XX

Pat Johnson (alto) – Sat, Jan 23
XX

Most weekdays our daughter, Amy, calls her mom from the car while she is on her way home from school with the boys. Often, they are talking when I get in the door for supper. Yesterday Amy told me that Reece (younger of the two boys, 8 years old) had a question for me because something came up in his Bible class and that he wanted to call me.

About a year ago, we gave our son-in-law an echo dot as a gift. Among other things, it allows the boys to say, “Alexa, call Jim Symons.” So, as soon as they arrived home from school and got to the echo, my phone rang with Reece on the other end. “Mage, I have a question for you.”

Please understand I got over being afraid to say, “I don’t know,” a very long time ago; but also understand I didn’t want to say that to him—at least not yet. The question was, “When Jesus was at the wedding in Cana of Galilee, his mother Mary was with him. Where was Joseph? He’s not in the story.” Well, very thankful it wasn’t the question about where did Cain get his wife, I gave him the only answer I knew and that was, the Bible does not say anything about Joseph’s whereabouts at that time.

This morning, in my Bible reading I came across the passage in Deuteronomy 29:29, “The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.”

It is always good to wonder. It is in seeking that we find. It is best to do the things we know God wants us to do!

Thank you for your faithful service to the Lord in the ministry we share.

On the journey of 2021, trust God, serve faithfully, live with joy, and grow together in grace!

I look forward to seeing you on the Lord’s Day. It is a great joy serving as your minister of music. blessings!

January 17, 2021

Greetings, I trust you are well. Thank you to those who helped last Sunday morning and evening! I appreciate both your service and faithfulness.

Your singing in the Loft makes a significant difference in our services. Choir, ~~we~~ I really need your help in the Loft for each service. You singing with me is much better than me singing alone—in our auditorium, on our livestreaming, and on the Baptist Temple Hour. On Sunday morning, we will load the Loft five minutes before each service—9:25, 10:45 & 5:55.

Orchestra, we will rehearse on Sunday afternoon at 5:30. We will look at music for this evening and the next couple of weeks. Thank you for your faithful service each time we meet!

This week, several of our people celebrate birthdays. Send them card, email, text, or give them a call and sing “Happy Birthday.”

Jean Malone (sop1) – Sun, Jan 17
XX

Don Roth (bass) – Thu, Jan 21
XX

Sandra Alban (sop1) – Mon, Jan 18
XX

Pat Johnson (alto) – Sat, Jan 23
XX

Most weekdays our daughter, Amy, calls her mom from the car while she is on her way home from school with the boys. Often, they are talking when I get in the door for supper. Yesterday Amy told me that Reece (younger of the two boys, 8 years old) had a question for me because something came up in his Bible class and that he wanted to call me.

About a year ago, we gave our son-in-law an echo dot as a gift. Among other things, it allows the boys to say, “Alexa, call Jim Symons.” So, as soon as they arrived home from school and got to the echo, my phone rang with Reece on the other end. “Mage, I have a question for you.”

Please understand I got over being afraid to say, “I don’t know,” a very long time ago; but also understand I didn’t want to say that to him—at least not yet. The question was, “When Jesus was at the wedding in Cana of Galilee, his mother Mary was with him. Where was Joseph? He’s not in the story.” Well, very thankful it wasn’t the question about where did Cain get his wife, I gave him the only answer I knew and that was, the Bible does not say anything about Joseph’s whereabouts at that time.

This morning, in my Bible reading I came across the passage in Deuteronomy 29:29, “The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.”

It is always good to wonder. It is in seeking that we find. It is best to do the things we know God wants us to do!

Thank you for your faithful service to the Lord in the ministry we share.

On the journey of 2021, trust God, serve faithfully, live with joy, and grow together in grace!

I look forward to seeing you on the Lord’s Day. It is a great joy serving as your minister of music. blessings!