

December 9, 2025

Greetings and happy Wednesday, I trust you are well.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for your special part in our Christmas Celebration! Y'all did a wonderful job—Choir, Orchestra, soloists, sound, tech, and drama people! It has been very well received and the comments I have heard are all very, very good. If you were not able to participate with us and prayed for us, thank you!

Sunday morning, we will repeat Behold Him. This is a change from what was previously scheduled. Agnus Dei is scheduled for Sunday evening.

Sunday afternoon we will meet together in the auditorium at 5:35.

If you did not sign the mat last Sunday and want to, please let me know immediately. I plan to have it sealed up and hung soon.

Happy Happy Birthday to Cathy Keefe (Tuesday), Erma White (Saturday), and Laverne Wallace (Saturday).

Choir, please return your Christmas music to your cubbie. A lump of coal will be awarded to the person who is last to return his or her Christmas music.

Choir and Orchestra, we have church each Sunday morning and evening during December. Our first full rehearsal of 2026 will be Sunday, January 4.

Thank you very much for your faithful service to the Lord in our ministry.
