

December 17, 2025

Greetings and happy Wednesday, I trust you are well.

Sunday is Christmas Sunday at FBT. Our special part includes opening with our Children (Born in Bethlehem) and closing with the Hallelujah Chorus. Somewhere in the middle, we have I Have Seen the Light with The Quartet. We also get to lead our congregation in the singing of some of the great Christmas carols. I hope you plan to be in your place of service on Sunday!

Sunday afternoon we will meet together in the auditorium at 5:35.

Last call for the mat, matt, matte. If you have not yet signed it, please let me know immediately. I plan to have it sealed up and hung soon.

Happy Happy Birthday to Sue Eaddy (Sunday), Debbie Hill (Monday), Tom Hardin (Tuesday), and Pat Atkinson (Saturday).

Choir, please return your Christmas music to your cubbie. A lump of coal will be awarded to the person who is last to return his or her Christmas music.

There is a box on the piano for your FBT thumb drive. Please return it so it can have new music loaded on it.

Choir and Orchestra, we have church each Sunday morning and evening during December. Our first full rehearsal of 2026 will be Sunday, January 4.

Thank you very much for your faithful service to the Lord in our ministry.

blessings

Dec 21 AM	Born In Bethlehem, I Have Seen the Light, Hallelujah Chorus
Dec 21 PM	Beautiful Star of Bethlehem
Dec 28 AM	Redeeming Love
Dec 28 PM	Heart of Heaven
Jan 4 AM	Goodness of God