Greetings! I trust you are well.

Our pastor has issued a call to prayer and an invitation to join him in earnest prayer at a time of your choosing each day. If you have not yet done so, please go to the web site (fbt.org) and sign up for a prayer time. There is also a list of specific and important things to pray for each day.

If there is a prayer request, you want to share, please go to fbt.org and complete the form. If you have other needs, please contact the church office or get in touch with me.

Please pray for Choir member, Willie Burch (bass), whose wife, Shirley Burch, passed away. As you probably know, Shirley struggled with health issues for quite some time. The Lord called her home to no more sorrow, no more pain, and no more tears. Please pray for our friend, Willie, in the days ahead.

Also, please pray for Dr. Bill Pollen, whose brother passed away.

Last week the people from Getty Music Publishing sent me a new song. In my opinion, it is a great song. I have put a copy of the demo and pdf file on the fbtmusic.org web site. I urge you to listen to it and learn it.

I have a question for you: If I were to set up an online gathering for Choir & Orchestra, would you attend? Please let me know.

This Sunday morning we plan to run a previously recorded song (Is He Worthy?) from our Choir and Orchestra. Don't worry while watching that you weren't invited. When the day finally arrives for us to be together, you will be the first to know!

Revelation 5

And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? <sup>3</sup>And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>4</sup>And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>5</sup>And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. <sup>6</sup>And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. <sup>8</sup>And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. <sup>9</sup>And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

<sup>10</sup>And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. <sup>11</sup>And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; <sup>12</sup>Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. <sup>13</sup>And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. <sup>14</sup>And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

Jesus is worthy!

I miss you and so look forward to the time when we gather together again. It is a great joy serving as your minister of music. Until we meet again,

Blessings
