Psalm 150

Patriotic Sing-a-long Stars and Stripes Forever

Hurray for the Red, White, and Blue, may it wave as our standard forever;
The gem of the land and the sea, and the banner of the right.

Let tyrants remember the day when our fathers with mighty endeavor proclaimed as they marched to the fray, that by their might and by their right it waves forever.

You’re a Grand Old Flag

You’re a grand old flag, you’re a high-flying flag, and forever in peace may you wave.
You’re the emblem of the land I love, the home of the free and the brave.
Every heart beats true ‘neath the Red, White, and Blue, where there’s never a boast or brag.
But should auld acquaintance be forgot, keep your eye on the grand old flag.

This Land Is Your Land

This land is your land, this land is my land, from California, to the New York Island.
From the redwood forest, to the gulf stream waters, this land was made for you and me.
(Ladies) I’ve roamed and rambled, and I followed my footsteps to the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts.
And all around me a voice was sounding: This land was made for you and me.
(All) This land is your land, this land is my land, from California, to the New York Island.
From the redwood forest, to the gulf stream waters, this land was made for you and me.

This Is My Country

This is my country, land of my birth!
This is my country, grandest on earth!
I pledge thee my allegiance, America, the bold,
for this is my country to have and to hold.
I pledge thee my allegiance, America, the bold,
for this is my country to have and to hold, to have and to hold!

Stars and Stripes Forever

Written by John Philip Sousa in 1896. The part we sing is the Trio section.

You're a Grand Old Flag

Written in 1906 by George M. Cohan for his musical George Washington, Jr.

This Land Is Your Land

Written in 1940, music by Al Jacobs, and lyrics by Don Raye. It was first recorded by Fred Waring and His Pennsylvanians in 1942.

This Is My Country

Written and recorded in the mid-1940's by American folk singer Woody Guthrie. He is quoted as saying he wrote it because he was tired of hearing Kate Smith sing, "God Bless America."
