The Story of My Church

Write or draw about something that happened in your church. Or ask someone else to tell you a story of something they remember about your church.

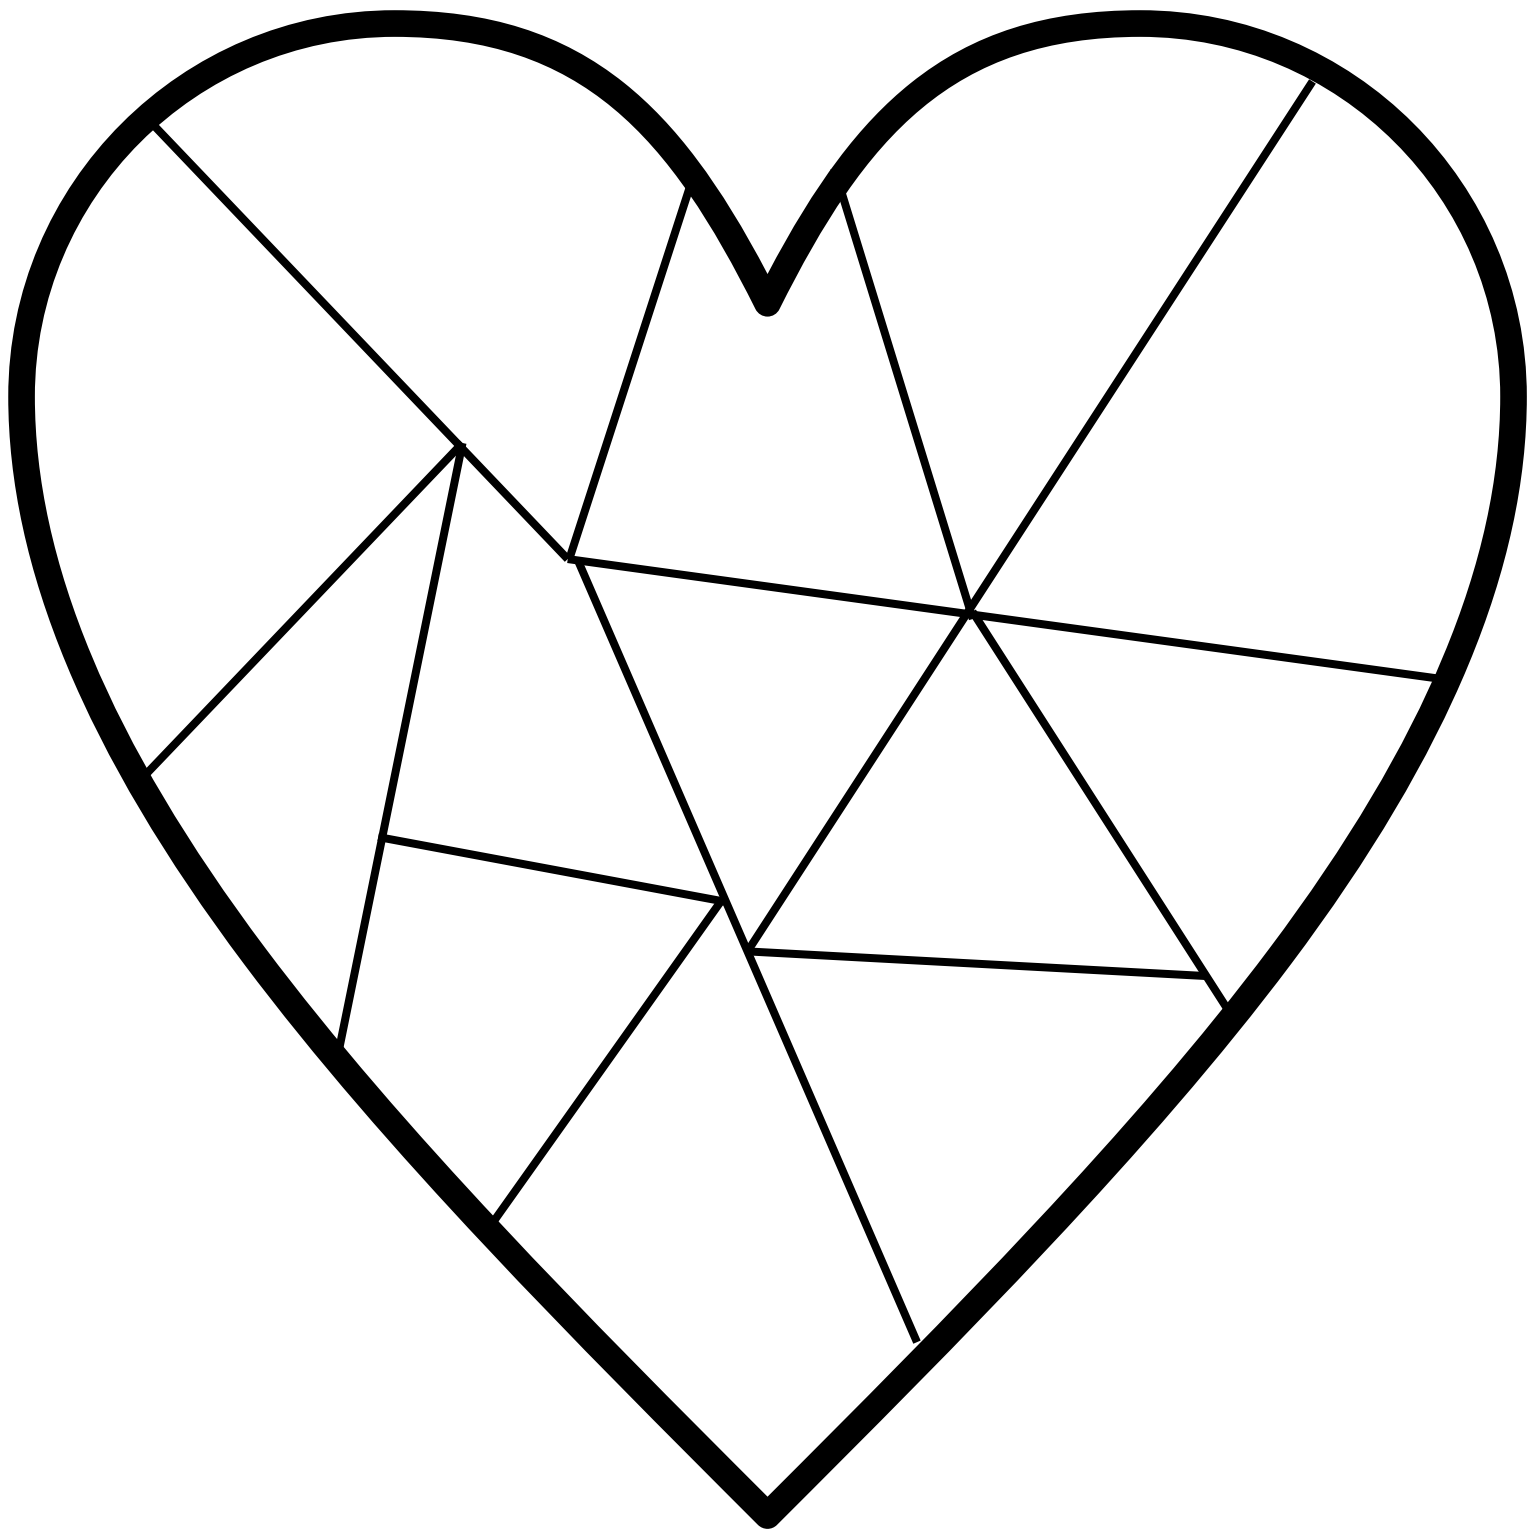

Color in what your church looks like, or decorate the church with your favorite colors!

Each time you do one of the things below, color in that part of the heart!

Fill in your own generosity ideas, then color in the heart each time you do one!

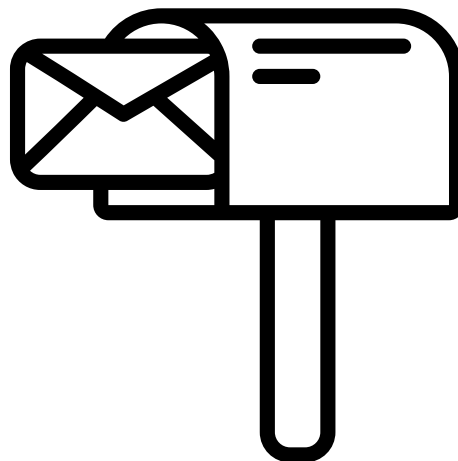

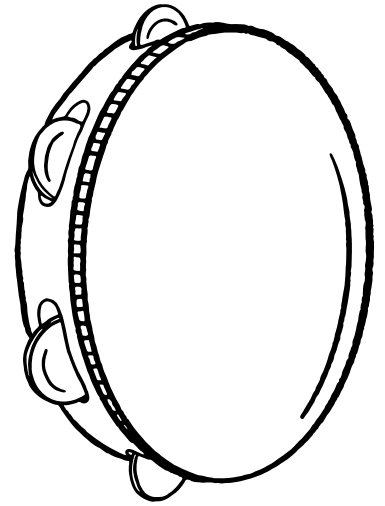

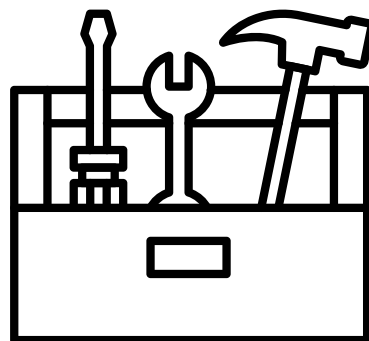

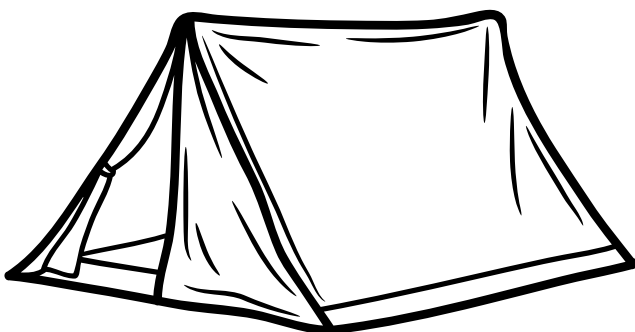

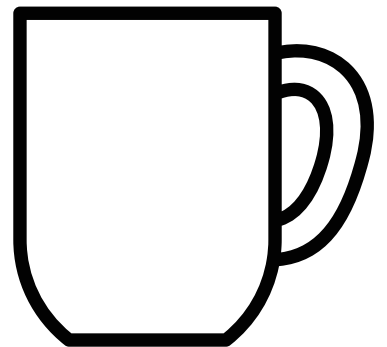

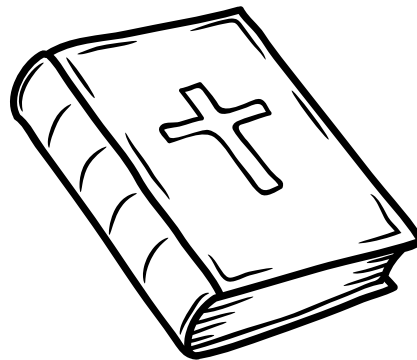

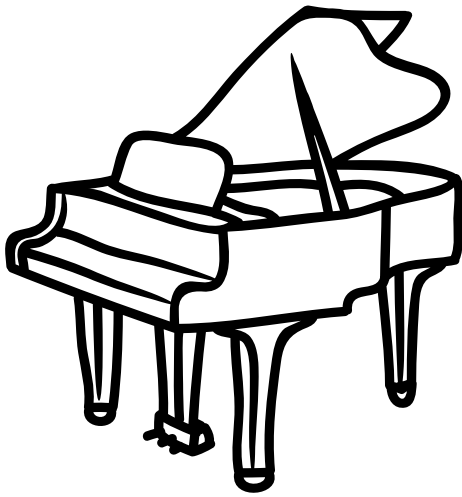

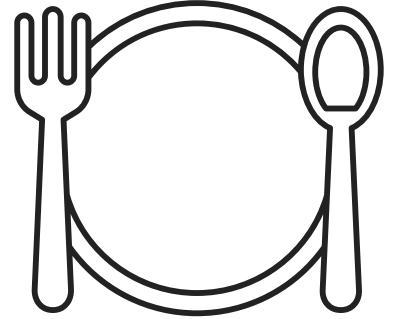

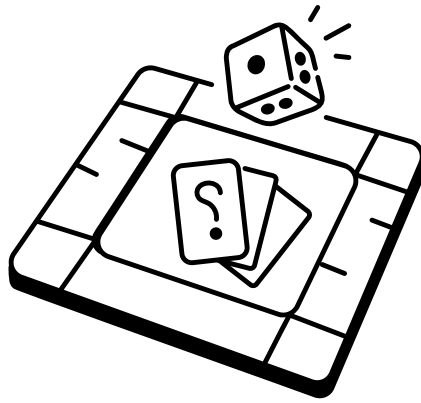

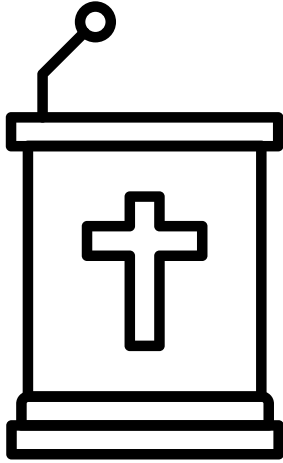

On the back page, write or draw something about your church that you are thankful for. Give the picture to an adult to say thank you!
