

Kylie Oversen is a native of Killdeer, ND. She attended the University of North Dakota for her undergraduate and law degrees. During her 11 years in Grand Forks, she was and remains an active member of Christus Rex Lutheran Campus Center.

Kylie served in the North Dakota House of Representatives from 2012-2016. During her time in the legislature, Kylie was an advocate for North Dakota's children, women, and families. She worked on policies related to equal pay and paid family leave; support and services for victims of domestic violence and human trafficking; improved access to mental and behavioral health services; and quality, affordable education at all levels, for all North Dakotans. In 2015, Kylie was elected Chairwoman of the North Dakota Democratic-NPL Party. She was reelected in 2017 and again in 2019. She firmly believes that the minority party plays an important role in ensuring the voices of all North Dakotans are heard and respected, and in holding the majority party accountable.

Kylie is currently employed with the Schneider Law Firm in Fargo, where she focuses on aiding individuals in seeking social security disability benefits and other general civil practice, and works as a guardian ad litem, representing children and teens in juvenile court matters. She resides in West Fargo with her boyfriend, Brian, and her cats, Lewis and Clark.
