Jerusalem Center for Bible Translators

Speaker Reinier deBlois continues to talk about his work with the JCBT. For almost 30 years the JCBT has been providing an excellent training program for translators, consultants and consultants-in-training. This program has, from its inception, received the blessing of the Rothberg International School of the Hebrew University and is fully accredited. The training is provided by renowned scholars and seasoned translation consultants and is therefore guaranteed to provide the students with those competencies that will enable them to bring excellence to Bible translation.

On March 4, a Community Group will serve and clean up.

Remember to take your pop cans!
