MISSIONARIES IN HONDURAS

FARTHEST HORIZONS—FROM HERE TO THE END OF THE EARTH

April 26, 2018

Dear Friends,

Much has happened since we last wrote in December. We started off the year with a Kairos course January 3–7 in our local church. Daniel Boniche, the Head Facilitator trainee from Nicaragua that I am mentoring was able to come and lead his second course. Most of the Facilitators were from our local congregation as were the participants. Many in this course were discipleship teachers from our local church.

The Discipleship classes graduation was January 13. This was Mary Lu's last act as head of Discipleship ministries.

It is now in the hands of people she has trained and who have worked with her for several years. Mary Lu will now become more involved in church mobilization, especially in the San Pedro Sula area where we live.

I flew to Quito, Ecuador on January to supervise a Kairos course. I am one of two people the regional coordinators for Latin America are adding to the team to keep up with growth. From Quito I flew to Mexico for the Simply Mobilizing Latin American Consultation. Over 60 people from nine nations gathered to be trained in a new course, The Unfinished Story, and to work on ideas and strategies for mobilizing the Latin American church toward a significant participation in reaching all nations with the Gospel.

February 15th we flew to Houston for a seven week trip in the USA. We enjoyed being able to visit many of you on this trip and catch up on what God has been doing in your lives. Our trips are usually shorter, but this one came out at seven weeks because of where Easter week fell this year. But God knew what that week was for!

On March 15 I received an email inviting me to Mexico City for specialized training in opening church mobilization in new nations from March 25–31. Mary Lu and I were on the road at the time, but quickly began considering it and putting it before the Lord. We decided to take advantage of the opportunity. That was Easter week and we would be in Dallas with our son Nathan and family. Mary Lu stayed with them and I flew to Mexico City. Part of the training was to develop a plan for opening mobilization courses in a new country. This was practical training as each group worked on planning for the nation we wanted to open in. I am now the new nation coordinator for Nicaragua, where I have already been preparing Daniel Boniche.

I will send another update very soon with more information about upcoming ministry. As so many doors are opening, pray with us for guidance as to which ones we should choose. We do not wish to be spread so thin that there is no fruit in what we do.

Thank you very much for your faithful support of our ministry; your love, prayers, encouragement and giving. Together we are making a difference in the lives of many people in Honduras and around the world. Remember, you share in the fruit.

God bless you abundantly,
