Welcome to the final Sunday of 2025! As we gather today, my prayer is that Christ will remain at the very center of your life as we step into 2026.

We conclude our Glad Tidings of Great Joy series by reflecting on the visit of the Wise Men. Their journey reminds us that the birth of Jesus demands a response. We understand why King Herod was disturbed at the news—but why was all Jerusalem troubled as well? The same question reaches us today. Are you troubled, or are you trusting in Jesus? He still seeks to enter every willing heart. May we welcome Him with faith, joy, and surrender.

Let's move into the New Year together with Hope, Faith, & Love!
