

Faith for Today

14 June 2026

WELCOME EVERYONE!

That... we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul,
both sure and stedfast.

Hebrews 6:18-19

Welcome to Your Church on this Flag Day! We are grateful you have joined us as we worship the Lord together.

The American flag and the Cross are both powerful symbols of truth and freedom. Yet neither symbol gives these blessings by itself. Our nation's freedom has been preserved through vigilance, sacrifice, and a humble trust in Almighty God. Our spiritual freedom was purchased at an even greater cost, the blood of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins. We thank God for our nation, let us also thank Him for our Savior.

Don't forget tonight's Home Missions service with Rodney Keister, the Chicago GCC & VBS and the Guys Cookout this week.
