WELCOME EVERYONE!

That... we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast.

Welcome! We are delighted you have joined us today for worship, fellowship, and spiritual growth. My family and I are in Ohio for our grandson's dedication and to preach at Christian Nation Church. We are back tonight!

Life's seas can be rough and challenging. Yet when Jesus is in the boat, we need not fear. On June 6, 1944, many young men approached the shores of Normandy with fear in their hearts, praying as they went. Sometimes prayer is the best we can do, but it is always enough when Christ is near. Keep Jesus in your boat!

Volunteers, please join us for our VBS meeting immediately following tonight's service. We look forward to serving together. God bless you, and welcome!
