Happy God and Country Sunday! We are delighted to welcome you as we gather to worship the Lord, thank Him for His many blessings, and celebrate the freedoms He has graciously given us. As we remember our nation's heritage, may we also remember that our greatest hope is not found in military strength, economic prosperity, or political power, but in the Lord Himself. Scripture reminds us, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD" (Psalm 33:12). Without God, we are nothing.

Following the morning service, please stay and enjoy our church picnic with hot dogs, chips, and delicious homemade ice cream. We look forward to sharing food, fellowship, and faith. Welcome, we are so glad you are here!
