Welcome to Back-to-School Sunday as we gather in the joy of the Lord. Today we pray especially for our students, parents, families, and church family as a new year begins. In a culture filled with confusion and lies, may our young people follow the example of Daniel, who “purposed in his heart” to walk in God’s truth. His courage in Babylon shows us that conviction is possible even in difficult places.

We are lifting each student before the throne of grace, asking God to strengthen them, guide them, and surround them with His favor. We pray God calls them into His service and uses them for His glory!
