SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE
My Prayer For You – Part One
Ephesians 1:17-19
November 2, 2025

REVIEW

1. Read Ephesians 1:15-16. What characteristics of the Ephesians prompted Paul to be thankful?

Six Biblical Reasons to Pray by John Calvin:

- To learn to depend upon our heavenly Father
- To purify the desires of our hearts
- To be content with whatever He provides
- To appreciate more deeply His generous faithfulness
- To enjoy without guilt the many gifts He provides
- To trust Him to constantly provide for our daily needs

ASSESS

2. How does the list above motivate your own prayer life? Are there any reasons that you haven't considered before?
3. For what reasons are you thankful to God for other believers? Have you expressed your gratitude to God or to them lately?
4. How does Paul's "prayer list" (Read v.17-19) for the Ephesians compare or contrast with our usual prayer lists?

5. What practical difference would it make if we better understood our God-given hope, inheritance, and power?

APPLY

6. Richard Coekin explains, "We don't pray to get God to fit into our plans, but to give ourselves to fit into His." Is this truth reflected in how often you pray, and what you pray? How does it need to shape your prayers?
7. Who do you know that needs to know, love and follow God better? Will you commit to praying for them every day for this next week?
