

LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION:

READ: Deuteronomy 6:6-7. What are you discipling your children toward? The sermon emphasized that every parent is already discipling their children—the question is, what are you discipling them to? If someone observed your family for a week, what would they say is most important to you? How does that align with what you want to be most important?

READ: Ephesians 5:15-16. Where do you need to reclaim ground from "modern Hellenism"? The sermon mentioned how entertainment, information, sports, and education can distract us from what matters most. Which of these four areas poses the biggest challenge to prioritizing faith in your home? What is one practical change you could make this week?

READ: Proverbs 22:6. What is your destination? The message asked: "What are your goals for your children's faith? What character qualities do you want them to have by the time they graduate high school?" Take a moment to answer these questions honestly. Do you have a clear vision? If not, what's one step you could take to develop that vision?

READ PROVERBS 13:24. How do you balance discipline with grace? Biblical discipline isn't about control or anger—it's about teaching children that choices have consequences and helping them grow in wisdom. How have you seen discipline done well (or poorly)? What's one area where you need more consistency or wisdom in discipline?

READ: Ephesians 5:15-16. How are you being intentional with your time? The sermon mentioned that kids spell love T-I-M-E, and suggested the 777 rule (7 minutes before school, 7 after, 7 before bed). How much meaningful time are you spending with your children each day? What is one practical way you could create more intentional time this week?

SHARE: Where do you need God's grace right now?

Parenting is hard, and none of us get it right all the time. Where are you struggling most right now? How can this group pray for you and support you in your parenting journey?