

Summary:

Jesus teaches that peacemakers are called children of God. Peace is not passive—it requires intentional, courageous action. Peacemaking reflects the heart of God and flows from a transformed, pure heart.

Key Scriptures

- 1 Matthew 5:9 — Blessed are the peacemakers
- 2 Luke 6:31 — Do to others as you would have them do to you
- 3 Philippians 2:3–4 — Value others above yourself
- 4 Romans 12:18 — As far as it depends on you, live at peace
- 5 Isaiah 1:18 — You are forgiven and made clean
- 6 Psalm 51:10 — Create in me a pure heart
- 7 Matthew 5:8 — Blessed are the pure in heart

Discussion Questions

- 1 What stood out to you most from this message?
- 2 Why does peacemaking require courage?
- 3 Is there a situation where you've been waiting for someone else to go first?
- 4 Who do you need to forgive?
- 5 Where might your heart be divided right now?
- 6 What would a pure heart look like in your life this week?

Action Steps

- 1 Start a conversation you've been avoiding
- 2 Forgive someone and release them in prayer
- 3 Speak truth over yourself and receive God's forgiveness
- 4 Pray daily: 'Create in me a pure heart, O God'

Encouragement

Peacemaking takes courage—but it leads to freedom. As you step into peace, you reflect your Father and live as His child