Welcome to New Hope!

November 1, 2026 All Saints Sunday

Pine Creek Site 8:30a Sand Creek Site 10a

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

Green & Blue Hymnals are in pews.
Cranberry Hymnals at Sand Creek site are in shelf near office door.

WORD

OLD TESTAMENT + Revelation 7: 9-17
The book of Revelation is written to seven churches in western Asia Minor during a time of great oppression. Today's reading is a response to the question asked in 6: 17: "Who is able to stand?" The writer gives the faithful the assurance of God's protection and a vision of victory.

PSALM 34: 1-10, 22

NEW TESTAMENT + 1st John 3: 1-3
A saint is one who's been set apart by God for God's purposes. God, out of divine love, set us apart to be the children of God. Our holy hope is that we shall see God as God really is.

THANK YOU

"We express our deepest gratitude to all of you for your prayers that have been a true source of strength, comfort and peace. Mike is doing well, transitioning into long-term phase of hormone therapy. Thank you, and may God bless you all." -Mike & Marian Brasher

COMMEMORATIONS

All Saints Day: The custom of commemorating all the saints of the church on a single day goes back at least to the 3rd century. This Day celebrates baptized people of God, living and dead, who make up the body of Christ. Many congregations remember the faithful who've died during the past year.

Daniel Payne, teacher, pastor, 1893 (TFF)
Organized a school for African Americans in Charleston, SC, that became the largest school there. It closed in 1835 when the General Assembly of SC passed a law preventing free African Americans and slaves from operating schools. Payne eventually enrolled in Gettysburg Seminary and was ordained by the Franckean Synod of Upper New York. No call was available to him in the Lutheran church, so he served a Presbyterian congregation in East Troy, New York. He went on to found Wilberforce College in Ohio.

Martín de Porres, renewer of society, died 1639
Son of a Spanish knight & a freed Black woman from Panama. As a lay brother in the Order of Preachers (Dominicans), he engaged in many charitable works in Lima, Peru. He founded an orphanage, hospital, and a clinic for cats/dogs.

Missionaries

John Christian Frederick Heyer, died 1873: 1st missionary sent by American Lutherans. After teaching at Gettysburg College and Seminary he was assigned to the Andhra region of India.

Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg, died 1719: Worker among the Tamil people on the southeast coast of India was opposed both by local Hindus & Danish authorities who favored a different missionary style. He's known for caring about the welfare of the whole person.

Ludwig Nommensen, died 1918: Born in northern Germany and sent to Sumatra as a Lutheran missionary. Working among Batak people, he translated the scriptures into their language, and honored their native culture.
