Pastor Sharon Core—sharon@redeemermclean.org

November 30, 2025

Welcome to Redeemer

We welcome you to our worship service this morning! Please sign the guest book that is found in our entry area or the red attendance book found in the pews. If you include your email address, we will keep you informed of any upcoming events. You can also email us at church@redeemermclean.org.

Holy Communion Open to All

We offer Holy Communion at all of our worship services. Please follow the instructions of the pastor when it is time to come forward. If you are not comfortable taking Holy Communion for any reason but would like to come forward for a blessing, then just cross your arms and the pastor will bless you. All are welcome to the Lord's Table.

Construction Project Update

The recent construction activity in the education wing includes new classroom doors hung, door locks installed, existing electrical outlets corrected, new cabinets, drawers and shelves installed, new countertops and sinks installed, hallway and classroom lighting updated, and new flooring in the hallways and classrooms laid. We are in the midst of county inspections and resolving punch list items. It is still expected that we will get an occupancy permit and turnover from the general contractor in early December.

Advent - Community Dinner and Midweek Vespers December 3 and December 10

Please come for dinner co-hosted by Redeemer and Redeemer Renaissance for the congregation and Preschool /After-School families on 12/3 and 12/10 (Wednesday nights). Please invite a friend, co-worker, neighbor, but please RSVP via this link: <https://bit.ly/48fJjbZ>

We will gather for a casual dinner and fellowship at 6pm in the Fellowship Hall.

The Advent Vespers (a service of evening prayer) will begin at 7pm in the sanctuary. All are welcome to attend both or either dinner or Vespers as your schedule permits.

Starting the Real Work of Transition Transition Team Self-Nomination Form Deadline Today

As announced, Council has developed a process to use to create a transition team who will start the work needed to gain clarity on our own identity and ministry, as we prepare to call a new pastor. Along with Pastor Core, the team will guide Redeemer and our members as we look at Redeemer's mission statement, welcome statement, history, ministry partners, and level of involvement by members of the congregation, and determine what God is calling us to in our next phase of ministry.

Please prayerfully consider if you feel called to this work! We are looking for a diverse set of individuals to staff this team. You may self-nominate by completing the transition team nomination form at this link: <https://bit.ly/rlc-transition>. Hard copies are also available in the Crossroads. The deadline for submission is today, November 30, with a target orientation meeting for the team on December 8 at 6:30 pm. Council will be conducting rolling reviews so that the team can get started before the new year.

Partner for Surgery

Join us today in the Crossroads to learn more about this special medical ministry in Guatemala. We'll be preparing 50 gift bags for infants undergoing surgical treatment of cleft palates – these will be delivered next week along with beautiful handmade quilts. Feel free to pick up a bag to fill, ask questions and learn ways to help more with this life-changing service.

Advent-Themed Bible Study Hosted by Women's Faith Group—Open to All! Starting December 2

The Women's Faith Group will host an Advent-themed study at 9:30 am on Tuesday mornings in Music Suite A at Redeemer--open to all men and women interested, in person and on Zoom. If you would like to join us, please sign up at <https://bit.ly/rlcwomensgroup>.

Meeting Our Yearly Expenses

As we enter this holiday season, we give thanks for all the ways God's grace has sustained us at Redeemer. Because of your faithful support, we've been able to care for one another, serve our community, and deepen our life in Christ.

At this moment, however, the shortfall in our budget that our congregation faces remains steady at about $85,000. Closing this gap is critical to meeting our obligations in the months ahead. While this may sound daunting, we've done it before through your generous gifts in the final months of the year, and we are confident that we can finish the year-end on a firm financial footing if we all pitch in.

Please prayerfully consider making a special year-end donation. Every gift matters, both large and small. To be counted toward 2025 giving, donations must be physically received at Redeemer or made online by December 29. Thank you for your generosity, partnership, and love for this community. When we give together, we embody God's abundance and share in the privilege of ministry here at Redeemer.

Living Nativity and Christmas Concert December 19

All are welcome and invited to enjoy the sounds of the season and the excitement of live animals in the crèche at Redeemer's Living Nativity and Christmas Concert. This is a Redeemer tradition that the entire community looks forward to and attends. Please invite the community--your family, neighbors, coworkers, and friends!

Come to the manger! Experience the wonder and joy at the Living Nativity!

- The Living Nativity is from 6 to 8pm. The event is all outside, so dress warm! Children (and adults!) love to visit the live animals, and maybe pet a bunny or baby lamb! Hot Chocolate will be served outside.

Come to the Christmas concert!

- At 7:30 pm everyone is invited inside to experience a concert of our many choirs--adult, youth, and bell choirs. People of all ages are welcome to sing along with favorite Christmas carols.

Visit the Bake Sale and buy something yummy!

- The Bake Sale will feature homemade baked goods. All proceeds will go to support the Britepaths Food4Thought program which supplies "weekend food packs" to local students in need.

There are many opportunities to participate in this wonderful night. Please sign up to volunteer:

- Sign up to serve hot chocolate, usher for the concert, or greet in the lobby: <https://bit.ly/rlc-nativityvolunteer>.
- Sign up to bake for the bake sale: <https://bit.ly/rlc-nativitybaker>.

Poinsetta Donations

This year at Christmas, beautiful holiday greens will fill the Crossroads and Nave. Help deck Redeemer's halls by donating in honor or in memory of someone you remember at Christmastime. Please see the insert in your bulletin for more information and an additional contribution opportunity for Lutheran World Relief.

Social Justice and Equity Book Club Starting New Book December 8

The Social Justice & Equity Book Club will be starting a new book on December 8 - "Horse" by Geraldine Brooks, author of "March" Pulitzer Prize winner. Anyone is welcome to join us and this would be a good time to do so! We meet every Monday via Zoom from 7:30 - 8:30pm and will be taking a Christmas break the two Mondays before and after Christmas. Please contact Teresa Schellenger for more info.

Young Adult Retreat—January 16 to 18 Sign up deadline December 14

The Young Adult winter retreat to Massanutten, VA is open to those 18 to 39-ish, regardless of whether or not you have attended a meeting before. The retreat will be a time of fun, fellowship, and faith building. We'll gather for meaningful discussions and worship, deepening our relationships with each other and growing in our spiritual journeys. The cost of the retreat is $50. If you are interested, please register at <https://bit.ly/4nE1z4A>.

Calling all Bakers and Bake Sale Volunteers:

One of the highlights of the Living Nativity is the Bake Sale. The proceeds from the sale will be used to supply "weekend food packages" to local youth via Britepaths Food4Thought program (<https://britepaths.org/our-services/food4thought>)

Bakers needed: The treats that the congregation bakes and donates are what makes the sale a success. Items would need to be brought to Redeemer on Friday 12/19 from 9am to 5pm. Small items like cookies, brownies and cupcakes are especially popular. If you can put your baked items in plastic bags that would be helpful. For example, a small ziplock bag of 6 cookies.

Youth needed: to set up, sell, and clean up the Bake Sale--and there will be pizza to enjoy before or after you volunteer.

The Bake Sale will take place during the Living Nativity on Friday, 12/19 from 6 to 8 pm and on Sunday, 12/21 after all the services. Come have fun with friends, while you fund raise, and if needed earn community service hours. To sign up, please go to <https://bit.ly/rlc-nativitybaker> or scan the QR code.

Then the King will say to those at this right hand, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was in prison and you visited me, I was sick and you took care of me." - Matthew 25:34-36

We are prepared to pray indefinitely.*

Prayers for the World, our Nation, and our Community

We pray for people in countries around the world that experience violence, war, and/or political division.
We pray for people who live in areas where there have been disasters of any kind.
We pray for improved relationships among all nations.
We pray for our elected leaders that they lead with compassion while making hard decisions.
We pray for the unemployed and the underemployed and all federal workers.
We pray for all those facing persecution and oppression.

Each month we will offer prayers for one of our congregations in the Virginia Conference.
We are part of the Virginia Conference of the ELCA Metro DC Synod.
We pray for St. Andrew Lutheran Church, Centreville, and their pastor, Tom Montgomery.

We also have a prayer partnership with Evangelical Lutheran Church of St. Mary in Ulyanovsk, Russia, and their pastor, Zhanibek Batenov.
