The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
 those who lived in a land of deep darkness —
 on them light has shined.
<sup>3</sup>You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
 they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,
 as people exult when dividing plunder.
<sup>4</sup>For the yoke of their burden,
 and the bar across their shoulders,
 the rod of their oppressor,
 you have broken as on the day of Midian.
<sup>5</sup>For all the boots of the tramping warriors
 and all the garments rolled in blood
 shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
<sup>6</sup>For a child has been born for us,
 a son given to us;
 authority rests upon his shoulders;
 and he is named
 Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
<sup>7</sup>His authority shall grow continually,
 and there shall be endless peace
 for the throne of David and his kingdom.
 He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness
 from this time onward and forevermore.
 The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

"Wonderful Peace" by Gustaf Nordqvist

READING: THE CHRISTMAS GOSPEL
Please stand.

LUKE 2:1-20

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. <sup>2</sup>This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. <sup>3</sup>All went to their own towns to be registered. <sup>4</sup>Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. <sup>5</sup>He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. <sup>6</sup>While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. <sup>7</sup>And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup>Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup>But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see — I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: <sup>11</sup>to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup>This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." <sup>13</sup>And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

 and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." <sup>16</sup>So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; <sup>18</sup>and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. <sup>19</sup>But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Pastor                    The Lord be with you.
Congregation        And also with you.

Pastor                    Lift up your hearts,
Congregation        We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor                    Let us give thanks to the Lord our God, Congregation        It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Pastor                    It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you,
                              almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.
In the wonder and mystery of the Word made flesh
                              you have opened the eyes of faith to a new and radiant vision of your glory,
                              that, beholding the God made visible,
                              we may be drawn to love the God whom we cannot see.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
                              we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Congregation        Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of pow'r and might,
